Pakistan, noise pollution is one of the major causes of discomfort, stress and suffering. In urban areas and big cities, the pollution has reached dangerous levels. For instance, according to the survey of Environmental protection Agency in Punjab, noise pollution in Lahore has reached 91 decibels while the maximum endurable level is 75 decibels. This means that the physical and mental health of many people is already at stake.

Q.No.1 (B)

In human nature, the universe has a strange arrangement of always being tied to strings of hope. If one breaks he holds the other. If second breaks than third — and this cycle continues till the last breath. Perhaps, had the universe not put this cycle of hope and expectations, soon he would have died at the first ~~dis~~ disappointment.
