

Title: ~~Sovereignty and international law flowing together.~~ paradox of international law

Governing the behavior of both individuals and states, ~~required~~ domestic and international law respectively. The identity of names does not identify the nature. International law operates under strange qualities having no social consensus and ~~no authority given to states~~ to ~~decide rules and regulations.~~ States are not subject to law and international law is not law about states. Several professions even deny the importance of international law. They claim it lacks the characteristic of effective sanctions. Sovereign states having bind to international law is incompatible either declare them sovereign as independent or bind them by international law, not truly sovereign. However, the theory of consent claims that by binding state to international law itself depicts the sovereignty of the state. International law varies accordingly, due to evaluations, some call it a sham while other claims that it ensure peace on earth. Meanwhile none of them does justice to the nature of plz write short sentences in order to bring clarity of ideas

4 Correct any Five of the following:

- a) In novel and poetry the last one is more important.
- b) You do not need to rebuke him.
- c) Hundred of students gathered to attend the conference arranged by Hassan Ali Ghandal.
- d) I never had and will never abuse anyone.
- e) Both professor and orator are dead.

5 A) Punctuate

plz enclose direct statement into quotation form

One day a friend visited Hodja and said Hodja, I want to borrow your donkey. I'm sorry! replied Hodja, but I have already lent it to someone else. As soon as he said this, the donkey brayed. but Hodja, I can hear the donkey! It's in the stable! shutting the door in his friend's face, Hodja told him, with dignity a man who believes the word of a donkey above my world doesn't deserve to be lent anything!

B) Prepositions

- iii- Throw this pen to the dustbin.
- ii- He went to the desert.
- vii- The birds flew over my head.
- ii- While walking around the bank of river, Wordsworth saw a large number of daffodils.
- ii- Nowadays Majid studies for the whole day.

6 Idioms

10) After getting married, Ali felt euphoric, he was like at the top of ~~tree~~.

2- As Warner caught behind the commentator instantly said "Finally Pakistan gets rid off big fish".

ii- To achieve goals one must have to burn the bridges.

viii. Every thing happens for good reasons.

ix) Ali was living with parents after graduation, during unemployment, in actual he was eating the humble pie.

Comprehension

ii) Lincoln convinced Jury by saying that "I am sure you will not come under this person's influence as he even doesn't know that of which side his shirt ought to be in front."

iii) Lincoln used political tactics by following the famous saying "if you can not shake the argument abuse the person who advances it", same Lincoln did it. →

As the result turned down in Lincoln's favour, it does not even matter whether it is malicious or not.

iv) Lincoln took risk by saying in-appropriate in court, as it is not his matter how his opponent dressed up. This might cost his suspension from court.

If I was the opponent I would have instantly attack with words "Kid! it's not your fault because you lack the fashion sense."

u-

Fallacy

Egleam

Plaintiff

Cripple

Vicious

By mistaken

cunning

Ripped apart

Cruel

explain in sentence form please

1

Rise and fall is part of every nation's story, but for that country importance should come first. After the world war II Japan was under severe crisis. Atom Bomb already destroyed the two cities but for Japan's the most significant element was the embarrassment of their King. The brutality of General Mack Arthur with their King awake them in the form of revenge. It start defeating America in almost every field except militarily. Eventually within few year Japan get's their once lost recognition. This story is the perfect example for Pakistan.