Q.7 Translation.

Ans:

Rise and fall is the story of every nation. But it requires sympathy and national unity. After second world war, Japan had faced many challenges. Atom bomb had already destroyed the two cities. But the greater tragedy for the Japanese was the humiliation of a king. General MacArthur's abusive behaviour towards the king ignited the spark of revenge within the Japanese. Not in the battle field, Japan began to beat us in every other field. Eventually, the nation within a few decades would regain its lost ground. There is a great lesson for Pakistan in this story.

Q.3 Read the following passage carefully and answer the question.

Q.2 How did Lincoln succeed in convincing the Jury?

Ans: ~~Lincoln succeeded in convincing the Jury by starting his argument tactfully.~~
Lincoln said that ~~I~~ have justice on my side because ~~this~~ gentlemen has no knowledge of wearing shirt. So, I am sure ~~Jury~~, you ~~would~~ won't be influenced by ~~his~~ knowledge regarding laws. Therefore, I am ~~sight~~ / ~~correct~~ and should be granted ~~Justice~~. on behalf of arguments.

Q.4 What sick did Lincoln take by using ad hominem?

If you had been an opposing lawyer, how might you have

Countered Lincoln's move?

Ans: Lincoln took risk by adding / using ad hominem because his argument was weak and by raising questions on someone's dressing doesn't mean he is illiterate or not skilled in his profession. If I had been an opposing lawyer, I would have asked countered questions and would bring him down because making arguments only on appearance does not prove him right rather law wants evidence. I would have kept him down in arguments.
