

Q no: 4

- Ans: i) Hundreds of students gathered to attend the conference by Hassan Ali Ghandal.
- ii) I am one of those people who cannot describe what they feel.
- iii) out of novel and poetry, the latter is more important.
- iv) The reading of poetry gives greater delightment than reading prose.
- v) I never have and will never abuse anyone.

Question # 5

(A)

One day a friend visited Hadja and said; Hadja, I want to borrow your donkey. I am sorry! replied Hadja, but I've already lent it to someone else. As soon as he said this, the donkey began to bray. But Hadja, I can hear the donkey. It's in the stable. Shutting the door in his friend's face, Hadja told him with dignity; a man who believes the word of a donkey above my words doesn't deserve to be lent anything.

(B)

- i) The doctor gave me a prescription for my cough.
- ii) He went to the desert.
- iii) Throw this pen into the dustbin.
- ii) The bird flew over my head.
- iii) In the examination you have to answer all the questions in an hour.

Question no. 6

- i) For good: He decided to quit smoking for good.
- ii) To eat humble pie: Ali is an aggressive man and everyone thinks that he needs to eat humble pie.
- iii) To give the devil his due: By taking the revenge of his brother's murder, he gave the devil his due.
- iv) Square peg in a round hole: This job position is like a square peg in a round hole for me.
- v) Big fish: Ali is a big fish for our company as he has the potential to invest huge sum in our business.

Question no. 7

Translation

Ups and down is the story of every nation. But for this, carefulness and national unity is a necessity. After world war II, Japan was in very tangible period of test. Atom bomb destruction has already destroyed the two cities. But for Japanes, the more imperative matter of concern was the humiliation of a King. General Mac Arthur's terrible behaviour with King further excited the flame of revenge among Japanes. If not in war, Japanes started to defeat America in every other field. At last, just after few decads, this nation became successful in regaining their lost position. This story withholds a huge lesson for Pakistan.

attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner please

Question no. 3

Comprehension

Q1: Yes, I do have a clear idea of what 'ad hominem' means after reading the given section.

'Ad hominem' means insulting the plaintiff's attorney to divert the attention of jurist when you cannot defend the case or lack the ability to shake the argument.

Q2: Lincoln succeed in convincing the jury as he already knew the reaction of jury for the shirt of orator which was buttoned up the back. So he used that point cleverly in his favour and against his opponent.

Q3: Lincoln tactic was non malicious as he cleverly connected the case with his sense of dressing. In the view of results, it does not matter whether the tactic was malicious or not as the end result was in his favour.

Q4: By using Ad hominem, Lincoln took the risk against his profession as he might be get called out of this unprofessional statement. If I had been an opposing lawyer, I might have countered Lincoln's move by calling it out unprofessionalism. I might would have addressed jurist that the opponent lawyer has much free time to examln whether my shirt is buttoned up on the back or front rather than focusing on sensitive case where the stake of his plaintiff depends on the his statements

Q:5 - fallacy : ability to mold the situation
gleam : concentration
Plaintiff: the one who subject of the case
cripple : kerfuffle vicious : clever

exp

Domestic

Question - 2

Title: International law: Imperative or unnecessary

Domestic law in a state is responsible to govern the conduct of an individual. International law governs the conduct of states. Both these law differ from each other as International law is deprived of social consensus as well as central authority. Due to its non binding nature, some professional lawyers denies its legal character. Whether the state is completely sovereign with no superior force or its not sovereign. Theory of consent give logical reasoning that binding to International law makes a state sovereign as it is accepted by state on its own consent. The evaluation of its significance vary as some states consider it unnecessary and some finds it essential to maintain peace

Total words : 351

Precis words : 114