English Precise & Composition
Test 2

M. Mahroz Adan (001)

Q1:-

Answer Part A

Any type of noise that disturbs human life is called noise pollution. If this pollution is ignored without taking precautionary measures then this can be extremely serious for human and animals body and brain. In Pakistan noise pollution is one of the factors that causes pain, stress, and torture. In urban areas and cities noise pollution is reached at the dangerous level. For instance, according to Punjab Environmental Safety Agency's survey, the noise pollution in Lahore has reached to 91 decible whereas the maximum level that can be bearable is 75 decible. This means the mental and physical health of many people are already in danger.

Answer Part B

In the nature of man, nature has set the strange system to always chase the race of hope. If he losses one race, he will continue the second one and if second one losses he will start the third. And this way he will keep continue his race until death. If nature has not set this hope in human's nature, He might get finished with disappointment of first defeat.
