Introductory Paragraph:-

"World is incomplete without women" this sentence itself shows the significant role of women in society. Women are the power of men behind the stage, they keep on motivating the men for progress in their fields. Women plays significant role in developing happy and healthy environment in home. According to Islam "mother is child's first school", women are responsible for child's character development, which contributes to the development of the society. Islam always promotes women education and empowerment, just to ensure the healthy environment of the society. Women today are contributing their shares along with men in economic, cultural and political platforms. Women have potential to develop a stable economy if given the opportunity. World without women or is not complete as women are the backbone of families and communities. If there will be no women for just one day society came to a standstill.

Stable. Women were played significant role in administration whether it is of house, society, industry or any workplace, they performed with responsibility. Also the role of women in our political history was outstanding, they played their role with concentration and responsibility. For example Benazir Bhutto the daughter of Shaheed Zulfiqar Ali Bhutto played significant role in policy making of the country and developing several institutions for women empowerment.

(2.2) Women have suffered a lot through the years at the hand of men. In earlier centuries, they were treated as almost non-existent. As if all the rights belonged to men even something as basic as voting. As time passed, women realized their power. Then began the revolution of women empowerment. It made them realize of their rights and now they must make their own place in society rather than depending on man. They have gone through terrible past with no rights. Women from all over the world have been rebellious to reach the status they have today.
