Essay

In the modern world, women are progressing. The social and economic status of the women have soared to height, and they are no longer confined within the boundaries of the four walls. They are playing the roles of a working woman, an efficient homemaker, and a proud mother and daughter. Earlier women were only associated with taking care of the household.

But nowadays, they are engaging in work fields to explore their inner talents and also to become independent and earn for themselves. They are one of the main reason behind the nation building and country proud. Female feticide at both national and social issue. Women are Ignored in low position of women in patriarchal society, extreme poverty conditions, social abuse and deprived from basic rights. So, the need of the hour is women to be empowered. Because this is era of modern generation of humanity, where each person is look for views as free. Therefore the authorities should make legislation, raise the awareness, and engagement in different communities. In short, women who played determine role in development of humanity, incomplete without the empowerment of women.
