

Need focus on Productive

Q 10- The World is incomplete
without Women:

03/20

1- Introduction:

2- Why Women are necessary to complete the world.

3- The world is incomplete without women.

(a) Women provide primary education
to new generation of world.

(b) Women provide support system in a family.

(c) Provide better citizen to a country.

(d) Role of Women in Community organization.

(e) Role of Women in peace making.

4- Not only Women but other factors
also important.

(a) Men can also provide primary education to new generation.

(b) Alone man can also provide support system in a family.

(c)

Not asked

(c) Not only women but collective Consciousness and law implementation provide better citizen

(d) Leadership role of men in Community organization.

(e) Men not only initiate but also maintain peace

5- Women due to their unique abilities contribute in better way:

(a) Women can provide better primary education to children due to their association

(b) Women due to their mother example are better to support family

(c) Collective Consciousness and law obedience are taught by women

(d) Women are better to build Community organization due to their meaningful role

(e) Women are better to maintain peace by addressing the spirit of an issue

6- Conclusion:

Need clarity

Introduction:

There is a famous saying that "you give me an educated woman I provide you a better nation."

With this saying the importance of women in world is evident. Every progressive nation has invested in education and not only in ~~man~~ male education but also prioritising female education. The contribution of women is often neglected but it has been always there that can be seen when observed unbiasedly. The role of women is important in all fields of life and ~~not only this they are~~ performing in better way in many fields if not all. From the provision of education along with nurturing of a child to the peace making and leaving their impact globally.

There are many women who are not only ~~completing~~ their domestic tasks but also out-performing in professional arena (fields). However, there are other factors and men who also come to play their role and complete the world. But women due to their unique abilities and meaningful contributions are inevitable in completing the world. ~~The world is not complete~~ without women due to their much important roles that they play in routine tasks. These roles are necessary for the running of life and progress in the world. These efforts and roles that women plays are very much extent acknowledged and accepted as well.

~~The world is not complete without women due to their much important roles that they play in routine tasks. These roles are necessary for the running of life and progress in the world. These efforts and roles that women plays are very much extent acknowledged and accepted as well.~~