Day: MTWTFSS Date:____ for progress. Moreover history gives us alor of lessons which can be applied to address contemperary challenges. Past achievements pove way for technological, scientific & and societal progress as well as historical examples of effective governance. Additionally of planet can only be protected if we This should be part of intro as an integrate ecological lessons into Sulure planning and analyze Impact of past environmental decisions on present conditions The future of the world is dependent upon human's realization of past mis takes so that they learn from them and make their future better with my with my man 20 word returner world their mide of god ) Everything that happens in life, happens for a reason. It cannot be denied that it is for post experiences which make as who we are today and shapes our luture. lessons learned from the past can undoubtedly more the path towards the future appear dearer. Whether we look at individuals, societies or countiles as a whole, all go through the same process which sheds light on the importance of realizing it sooner rather than later Dwelling over past occurrances instead of seeing them as an opportunity to evolve is the grovest mistake one can make.

Day: MINWILLS Date:_ Individuals undergo personal growth Abrough learning from their mistakes Scientists would never be able to iment anything if they gave of after the first try Person's life which shapes ones but withrough learning from experience

Not trial and error or never giving

Newton conducted countless experience and conducted countless experience and conducted countless experiences. before he made estanding discovering discovery, scientification or self-discovery, sci which make the world emember him to This date concluding sentence A by way the si blands with the powerless of Adversity in experiences also mates people devolop mental toughness for any similar experience they may encounter in the fature This is because ou brain is sensitive to new experiences and the unknown areas to the humans but as people get to try out different things and face various struggles, the boom adapts to the situation more quickly than before. Hazrat Muhammad (S. A.W.) had to face situations which would have mentally An example would be someone for lored him in his conquest to spreaming a situation for the first the message of Allah However he Sand then facing it again developed mental toughtes and remained changed in the middle. steadfast as he was aware that he would continue to face these situations again and again as long as he preaches Islam. In the future, his examples of preservoiance are cited world wide.

Day: MTWTFSS Date:_ Individuals should come up with strategies to avoid previous failures in the future. This would give them a direction and a set strategy to live their life according to their aims. As Martin Luther King once said: All problem / balgaba sol & All progress is preparious and the solution to one problem Arings us face to face with another problem " at any Therefore it is better to shalegize and treat these problems as building blocks of one's fulore signs You are not making suggestions so do not write it like them · Eilures should be viewed as stepping stones towards progress. This is because without failures (we won't get to know ! our weaknesses and how to address -them. It is only in the face of failure that we realize out short comings to be better oble to amend them for a bright future. 12th fail, a bollywood movie is based on the time story of a boy tion wal India, who used to fail if he could not cheat but the sought inspiration from a police officer and that one interaction Buith him completely changed his outlook from the past ·lowords exams. He never cheated again and became an officer ofter countless struggle.
