Introduction: The 1973 constitution laid the groundwork for the Pakistan's political and legal structure. It emphasized parlimentary democracy and delineating the powers of President Prime minister and Parliment. The 1973 constitution explained a federal form of gavifitiwastbalanced themshypthere a need of 18th amend distribution of power between the centre and the provinces. It established the framework for the country's governance and set a stage for subsequent constitutional developments. Pakistan has undergone several constitutional developments.	-
Introduction: The 1973 constitution laid the groundwork for the Pakistan's political and legal structure. It emphasized parlimentary democracy and delineating the powers of President Prime minister and Pauliment. The 1973 constitution explained a federal form of govifit it was to alanced the how that there is a need of 18th amend a need of 18th amend the provinces. It established the framework for the country's governance and set a stage for subsequent constitutional developments. Pakistan has undergone several constitutional developments.	-
The 1973 constitution laid the groundwork for the Pakistan's political and legal structure. It emphasized parlimentary democracy and delineating the powers of President Prime minister and Parliment. The 1973 constitution explained a federal form of gavifit was balanced the how hys there is a need of 18th amend It also between the centre and the provinces. It established the framework for the country's governance and set a stage for subsequent constitutional developments. Pakistan has undergone several constitutional developments.	- for The Pakistan's political and legal structure. It emphasized parlimentary democracy and delineating the powers of President Prime minister and Paliment. The 1973 constitution explained a federal form of gavifit wastbalanced the newhysthere was a need of 18th amend distribution of power between the centre and the provinces. It established the framework for the country's governance and set a stage for subsequent constitutional developments. Pakiston has undergone several constitutional developments.	-
for The Pakistan's political and legal structure. It emphasized parlimentary democracy and delineating the powers of President Prime minister and Paliment. The 1973 constitution explained a federal form of gavifit wastbalanced the newhysthere was a need of 18th amend distribution of power between the centre and the provinces. It established the framework for the country's governance and set a stage for subsequent constitutional developments. Pakiston has undergone several constitutional developments.	-
It emphasized parlimentary democracy and delineating the powers of President Prime minister and Parliment. The 1973 constitution explained a federal form of gaveifitiments balanced then why there is a need of 18th amend and the provinces. It established the framework for the country's governance and set a stage for subsequent constitutional developments. Pakistan has undergone several constitutional developments.	- and Parliment. The 1973 constitution explained a federal form of governitives balanced the newhysthere is a need of 18th amend and the provinces. It established the framework for the country's governance and set a stage for subsequent constitutional developments. Pakiston has undergone several constitutional developments!	- a federal form of governments balanced themwhysthere is a need of 18th amend distribution of power between the centre and the provinces-It established the framework for the country's governance and set a stage for subsequent constitutional developments Pakiston has undergone several constitutional developments	- distribution of power between the centre and the provinces-It established the framework for the country's governance and set a stage for subsequent constitutional developments. Pakiston has undergone several constitutional developments	- the provinces. It established the framework for the country's governance and set a stage for subsequent constitutional developments. Pakiston has undergone several constitutional developments!
the country's governance and set a stage for subsequent constitutional developments. Pakiston has undergone several constitutional developments! subsequent constitutional developments. Pakiston has undergone several constitutional developments undergone several constitutional developments amendments that have phyed a pivotal role in shoping its legal and political framework Some of the mojor constitutional developmendment include 8th Amendment, 18th Amendment, and 21st	n E amendment gravely impacted the political frame	worl
of 1973 constitution.
	rá
MATOR CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS SINCE 197	3.
The major constitutional amendments mainly 8th, 18th and 21st Amendment has impacted	1 the legal and political framework of country They are as follows:
EIGHTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT (1985)

	DATE: _/_/
	in November 1985. This amendment significantly 8.	altered the political landscape by concentrating power in the hands of the President. This change had a lasting impact on the legal framework, disrupting the balance between the 4	executive and legislative branches and influencing the trajectory of the parlimentary system-
	IMPACTS OF AMENDMENT
1	Presidential Powers Expanded: 8th Amendment expanded the powers of President, leading to correntration of power in executive branch. It allowed President to dissolve National Assembly dismiss the Prime Minister and appoint military chiefs. This concentration of authority raised the concerns about The potential for authoritarian governance and limited checks and balances.
b-	Weakend Parlimentory System.
	Parlmentary System was the heart of 1973 constitution and this amendment weakend
7	it by diminishing the role of Prime Minister and the National Assembly. It shifted the decision-making authority lawards the excutive president importing the resp representativoess of government.
C.	Political Instability
	The concentration of power in The Presidency contributed to political instability as to executive decisions. This instability appected the continuity of policies and governance, hindering the development of a stable political

- 11	environment_
-	Legal and Constitutional Concerns
-	The 8th Amendment raised legal and
-	constitutional concerns about the separation of powers and the independence of key institutions. Analysts had argued that it undermined
- 11	the principles of democracy and rule of law by
- 11	centralizing authority in the executive without
+	adequate checks-
1
1	Die to the determ detrimental impach
- 11	of Eth Eighth Amendment eventually led to its
- 11	repeal in 1997, acknowledging The need to 1	restore a more balanced distribution of powers.
	18th CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT (2010)
	The 18th amendment passed in 2010 marked athe most extensive amendment till.
	now. It shifted the framework towards decentralization by empowering provinces impacting the legal and political framework-This
-	constitutional change enhanced regional autonomy.
-	fostering or more balanced federal structure and Strengthening the parlimentary system-
11	IMPACTS OF AMENDMENT

DATE: / / country's legal and political framework. The key impacts are as under a. Devolution of Powers: The 18th Amendment shifted towards decentralization by devolving substantial powers to provinces. The federal list was abolished and subjects like health, education, disaster management no were devolved to provinces. This empowered provinces to have more control over these affairs impacting the legal framework of country. 6. Strengthening Provincial Autonomy Provincial Autonomy was the central theme of the 18th Amendment It aimed to promote a more balanced federal structure by enhancing the decision making authority of provinces, contributing to a more equitable distribution of resources and apportunities. This amendment gave the right to bring investments and take look from international banks. It also awarded more share to provinces in NFC Award. These changes although received positive reviews but some critics have pointed that extensive devolution of powers will lead to Issues of co-ordination and effeciency and concerns were raised regarding the potential of provinces to manage affairs like health and disaster management which was proved right as These two spheres are again devolved to federation due to incompetency of provinces to handle them.

	DATE: / /
C.	Constitutional Reforms
	The constitutional reforms in 18th amendment included changes in the appointment process of judges and The Federal Public Service Commission These reforms aimed to enhance the independence of judiciary and betreaucratic institutions by institutionalization of appointments.
4	Imagel - Pulinater Such 0,-	Impact on Parlimentary System: The 17th amendment increased the powers of President which was repealed in 18th amendment strengthening the parlimentary system by reducing the President's discretionary powers and reinforcing the authority of Prime Minuter and National Assembly This shift had a positive impact on democratic governance and accountability of elected representatives The 18th amendment played a pivotal role in restriping Pakictan's legal and political landscape By devolving powers to provinces and reinforcing democratic principles, it aimed to create a more balanced and representative governance structure in the country-
-	21st CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT (2015)
3-	In response to heightened security concerns partiment adopted 21st amendment in 2015-It introduced military course for the expedited trial of terrorism-related cases-This constitutional amendment showcased the adaptability of Pakistan's legal framework to address pressing national security issues while	- adhering to democratic principles	-

DATE/
IMPACT OF AMENDMENT	-
It introduced significant changes to	- the legal and judicial framework-The	- key aspects of impacts is as follows:	- a-Military courts for Terrorism Cases.
It was the primary forus of 21st amendment to establish military courts for to	ie speedy trial of individuals involved in terrorism related cases. This move was a respor to the escaloting threat to terrorism on the perceived inadequancy of civillian judicial System in handling such cases with effecting- Military courts were believed to provide a more secure environment for trial proceedi	704 conci and concerns about witness sofety in civillian cours.
GVIIII ari
6- Constitutional Adaptability in Times of Crisis-The 21st Amendment demonstrated The constitutional adaptability of Pakisten to respond to unent national security challenges. It reflected opvernment's commitment to taking decessive measures to address terrorism and protect The sapely and well-being of its cilizens-

	DATE/
	Sunset Clause and Extension.
	the 21st amount
+	That intially (at a)
- 11	TONCTION OF SILVEN (ONL)
-	However, this period was later extended raising
-	debates about the need for a more
+	sustrainable, long-term strategy to address Levrorism
1	without compromising constitutional principles
1	The 21st amendment was a consequential
-	sesponse to pressing national security concerns
1	introducing military courts for terrorism cores.
1	while it aimed to enhance The obliciency of justice in the face of terrorism, it also sparked debates about The balance of between security imperatives and The protection
- 11	of constitutional rights and democratic
1	values in the long-run-11/20
	CONCLUSION:
	18th amendment idea of provincial atmendamental productive and the production of t autonomy can be discussed a bit more legal and political framework. These amendments
V	restristine country's ability and comitment 1	o democratic principles while responding to
+	the changing circumstances contributing to The 1	ongoing evolution of its political dynamics.

	QNo.2.
	INTRODUCTION:
	The spirit of federalism in 1973 constitution of Pakistan emphasizes a division of powers between the central government and The
- 1	provinces fostering a cooperative framework. It
- 4	promotes regional autonomy while maintaining a united nation- For smooth functioning of relations between Ventre and the provinces key measures include clear delineation of powers, regular intergovernmental communication, financial autonomy for provinces and a dispute regulation mechanism-Effective coordination and collaboration ensure a harmonious balance between The centre and provinces, foestring national slability-FEDERALISM IN 1973 CONSTITUTION:
	The 1973 constitution of Pakistan embraces a federal structure, outlining the distribution of powers and responsibilities between the central government and is provinces-The key features include
-	Division of Powers:
	The 1973 constitution delineates powers between The federal government and provinces designating exclusive, concurrent and residual powers to ensure a balanced distribution of

2.	Provincial autonomy-
	The constitution recognizes and promotes provincial autonomy, empowering provinces to manage and govern their respective territories Independently in subjects like educations, taxes, loans etc.
3_	Concurrent Powers
	The constitution of Pakistan promotes strong relations between federation and provinces by allowing for cooperation in areas like criminal law, taxation, disactor management and social 4.12.00	welfare_
4-	Council of Common Interests (CCI)
	The 1973 constitution established a council of common interest as a constitutional
-	body to facilitate intergovernmental cooperation and resolve disputes on issues of national importance.
	ALL DO TO THE POLICE (AUGO)
5-	National Finance Commission (NFC) Set up to determine the distribution of financial resources between the federal and provincial governments, ensuring a fair allocation of funds This body is referred as National Finance Commission (NFC)
	Trance Compasion in Compasion Provincial Assembliers The 1973 constitution provides (s. The establishment of provincial assemblies iguing provinces legislative powers to enact laws on subjects within their jurisdiction-

7-	Emergency Powers
	The constitution defines emergency powers that can be excercized by the federal government during times of crisis maintaining a balance between centralized authority and the need for national security.
	The federal structure enshrined in 1973 constitution of Pakiston aims to create a the central government and the provinces, emphasizing autonomy, collaboration and The unity of MEASURES FOR SMOOTH FUNCTIONING OF FEDERAL STRUCTURE
	TEDERAL OTROCIDIRE
	To encure The smooth functioning of velations between The centre-provinces, measures like clear division of powers, in offective inter-governmental dialogues, financial autonomy for provinces, resource shoring and conflict

Conclib
and a	tion did provided provincial autonomy
	DOUGH PER MINISTER
	Country smooth functioning
retavons	between centine and provinces
Conseile	second part of the question
CONCLUS	is not properly answered
1	length of the answer is insuffici
Plaborate	and collaborative relations between 9/20
Lautonomy	and collaborative relations between 9120
provinces	and the centre and it can Turther	be improved by effective conflict resolution	and inter-governmental dialogues-