Answer(A)

Punctuation

One day, a friend visited Hodja and said Hodja, "I want to borrow your donkey." "I'm sorry!", replied Hodja. "But, I've already lent it to someone else." As soon as he said this, the donkey brayed. "But Hodja, I can hear the donkey! It's in the stable!" Shutting the door in his friend's face, Hodja told him with dignity, "A man who believes the word of a donkey about my word does not deserve to be lent anything."

Q17

Answer

Translation

Plz attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner of every nation. But, ~~sensitive feelings~~ and nationalism is necessary for this. Post World War II, Japan had a moment of strict examination. The Atomic destruction had already devastated two cities. But, the greatest grief for Japanese was insult of the king. General MacArthur's nasty behavior with king burn a flame of the revenge inside Japanese. Not in the battlefield, but Japanese started to defeat America in every other field. Finally, in the few decades, this nation succeeded to achieve the lost status. There is a great lesson in this story for Pakistan.

Q:2
AnswerPrecisCo-relationship between the international law and the sovereignty

International law shapes characters of states under which their governance operates. International law varies to social attributes, lacking social inclusion and a specific sovereignty of the state within certain regulations. In fact, international law is the centre of two states. A guild of historians negates this law accusing it vacant features. Sovereignty and international law are diversified. Sovereign states are free from binded laws or binded laws question over sovereignty. However, consensus among states is a solution of this controversy. Resultantly, respect to international law is respect to sovereignty. International law is a compromised-based agreement between states for peace of the world. Therefore, international law is a mix of sovereign states and certain regulations.

Lincoln took the risk of 'an attempt to curb justice' by using ad hominem. Being an opponent barrister, I have to counter Lincoln's move by reversing the situation in the name of justice. Acceding of hindrance to justice, an opponent had to turn the side of the situation, without being nervous at Lincoln's move.
