efforts. Even in contemporary world the women in west is subject to various challenges where as Islam grant women exclusive right to empower her.

2: Rights, roles, and status of women in Islam.

Write rights, role and status separately

According to the saying of Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W) woman possess a special status.

"Best among you is the <sup>one</sup> who is good for their spouse"

(-sahih Bukhari)

The hadees of Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W) shows the special status of women. The man who has a good and decent behavior with his spouse is called to be the best among all. Along with special status women have a <sup>list</sup> rights that western <sup>1400 years</sup> doesn't have. More than 1400 year ago Islam grant women right to own property, to decide his spouse, to have a share in inheritance and many more.

3: Efforts of Women in West for their rights.

Women in West after doing marches and facing hardship, get their basic human right. Earlier they were treated as a commodity, and a public property. According to Karl Marx concept of Communism, man doesn't possess any private property even his wife is a public property and they were treated "not more than animal."

No need to write on waves in detail. Just a paragraph would suffice.

a: First Wave of Feminism:

late 19th century women in West realised that they are deprived of basic human rights. At that time they were subject to treatment as commodity not even allowed to vote and own property. First wave came to end by the start of 20th century and West grant women right to vote for the first time in history.

b: Second wave of feminism:

By the start of World War II when men in workforce left for war, women for the first time become the part of labor community. But as the society was unjust to women they paid half wages. By various protest they got right to be paid equally.

c: 3rd wave of feminism.

late 20th century the 3rd wave of feminism begin with demand of more rights and call for equal human rights begin. In 1991 women in USA for first time got the right to own ATM card without the permission of a guardian (man)

These efforts doesn't stop here but they are still facing several challenges i.e., Discrimination, workplace harassment, unable to possess good positions in companies and so on.

4. Compassion between the women in Islam and West.

Islam has grant women respect and special exclusive rights along with basic human rights. Women in muslim society have equal rights as man or might be more than a man. Islam says that man is a Guardian of women while the western philosopher says,

"Women is a mere incubator of man's seed
(-Aristotle)

Even in Today's modern era Women in West is faced with challenges of Gender based discrimination and workplace harassment. In Addition, by end of 3rd wave of feminism only white women gets their due rights successful, Black women is not even considered to be a human. While Prophet Muhammad says,

"There is no superiority of Arabs over non Arabs, and no Arabs over Arabs, the difference is only based on their practices"
(-Al-Bukhari)

According to drama writer of Pakistan,

"Women makes the fate of society."

(Khalid-ur-Rehman)

The <sup>one</sup> who understand Islam is aware about the sayings of Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W) and Surah which indicates the special status of women.

5: Conclusion.

Hence proved that women is more empowered in Muslim society compared to western world. They not only having basic human right but also enjoying exclusive rights. Most of people judge the book by it's cover, they saw openness but ignores the difficulties they are confronted with.
