

Topic:- Implications of Climate Change for children in developing countries

Outline

1) Introduction

Thesis statement: Climate change is one of the major problems in today's era. Change in climate, causing bad effects on children in developing countries. The children are facing numerous health problems which makes trouble for them. Impacts of climate change increasing day by day on children. Authorities should take proper actions to overcome these impacts of climate change on children.

2) Conch Paragraph

3) Situation of Climate Change in developing countries.

4) Factors responsible for climate change in developing countries:

a) Exploitation of natural resources to boost globalization adding to the climate dilemma.

b) Developing countries are used as a

Not asked

dumping grounds for the global industrial waste.

c) Increase of different transports that enhance greenhouse gas emission

d) Water pollution is there due to increase of wastes in water.

e) Deforestation, to expand the urbanization.

f) There are major challenges for the global policies.

4) Impacts of climate change on children ~~to overcome~~ in developing countries:

a) Spread of a lot of diseases which affects health of children.

b) Natural disasters are occurring, which make stoppage to their education.

c) Men, women and children are forced to leave their countries due to change in climate.

d) Air pollution makes reduction in the life expectancy of children.

e) There is shortage of food in developing countries.

f) Direct heat from the sun <sup>effects</sup> affecting skin of children.

s) A way forwards to stop impacts of climate change on children.

g) Policy making and effective implementation to deter climate change.

b) Govt and parents should give extra care to children for protecting them.

c) There should be plantation drives in schools.

d) There should be practices of climate harming disincentivization on national level.

b) Conclusion

_ / _ / :00

"We do not inherit the earth from our ancestors, we borrow it from our children"; (Native American). This means that the earth in which we are living have not inherited in us from our forefathers, but we have borrowed the earth from our children. Generation to generation things transformed. It encourages us a mindset of sustainability, urging people to consider the long-term of their decisions on the environment. The quote tells us the importance of taking care of the planet to ensure a better future for coming generations. There is increase in exploitation of natural resources. Developing countries are used as a dumping grounds, water pollution is being increasing and use of different transports enhance the greenhouse gas emission. These factors causing climate change and climate change directly impacts on children as there is spread of a lot of diseases. Their education effects due to increase in natural disasters, families are force to leave their countries. There is also air pollution which reduces the life expectancy of children, the shortage of food is there and direct heat from the sun effects children. Climate change is one of the major problem in today's era. Change in climate causing bad effects on children in developing countries. The children are facing numerous health problems which makes trouble for them. Impacts of climate change increasing day by day on children. Authorities should take proper actions to overcome these impacts on children.

04/10

Topic: The role of intellectual in society.

OUTLINE

1) Introduction

Thesis Statement: The role of intellectual in society provides a lot of progress in the development of country as well as the society. Intellectual ability makes the mind to think about the specific topic in detail. However, neglecting the intellectual ability may cause problem for the country as well as the society. It plays an important role in society.

2) Conch Paragraph.

3) Factors that neglecting the role of intellectual in our society:-

- a) Lack of focus on critical thinking.
- b) Outdated curriculum in institutions.
- c) Educational policies are poor in our society.
- d) Cramming based exams instead of analyzing based exams.
- e) Encouragement on new ideas, old ideas are still there.

NOT NOTED

_ _ _ _ 25

f) Research based data is not considered on national level.

y) Impacts of intellectual in society

g) Provides confidence to people to explore new ideas ✓

b) Critical thinking will be increase in people. ✓

c) Practical work will provide help in the development of country. ✓

d) Intellectual helps people to compete with people of other states. ✓

e) People will talk on facts and research based things rather than what is taught to them ✓

f) Enhancement of logic building in people.

s) A way ~~was~~ forward to enhance intellectual in society:

a) Encourage critical ideas in people. ✓

b) By giving people practical experiences in different platforms.

c) By giving people chance to gain

internat: ...

*) Having national agenda for technological innovations.

Conclusion:

It is imp what not to write in essay

- stay relevant

- you have good skills but use these skills in a good way