Question #3

Introduction:

CPEC means China Pakistan Economic Corridor is the significant turn for the future of China and Pakistan. This project is started back in 2013, when China want to enlarge BRI- Belt and road initiative. CPEC is actually the part of this BRI project for all the days and nights of this decade both countries tried their best to strengthen the CPEC according to their capacity. But, the thing is every project have some failure and successful points. Similarly, CPEC has successful point like Gwadar port, renewable energy projects, skill program for youth, road network at lower Pakistan completed, strengthen the relation of both the countries. On the other hand it has some failures in which delay in the project, increase in the cost of project, roads not completed in upper belt, increase disparity in Balochistan, which the provincial conflicts in Pakistan.

These issues can be managed by the completion of project.

Celebrating decade of CPEC:

Chinese premier came to Pakistan and celebrate the decade of CPEC with Pakistan officials. It was the historical moment in which both officials sign the MOU to complete this project soon.

Success of CPEC:

CPEC is like the war of survival for Pakistan that needs to be successful at any cost. It has some successful points that are completed within a decade, that one given below.

Inauguration of Gwadar Port:

Pakistan, previously only use the port Qasim for the import and export of the country. By the port of project CPEC, it was necessary to make a Gwadar port.

which will help in the import and export of the trade. It is the shortest way to send trade to other world

This success of trade is one of the success in the project of CPEC.

Renewable Energy Project:

Energy sector of Pakistan is at very weak turn, it need to be improved. For

This purpose CPEC played a vital role because it helps in Quaid-e-Azam solar park in which 1000 MW energy generated within a day.

Skillful program for youth:

One of the crucial project of CPEC is to trade the youth of Pakistan that will help in the CPEC look after for this purpose China gifted the project of NAVTC - National Vocational Technical Training Commission and TAVIA for the youth. Due to this more than 100000 youth are skilled in this range.

Road network at lower belt near to complete:

At lower Punjab, Sindh and Balochistan the road network of this project is about to complete. Due to this people are traveling on them. But not only this people use to trade by these roads. In this project Sukkar motorway is recently completed.

CPEC strengthen the relation of both countries:

CPEC plays a vital role in the form of strengthen both the countries. If the project is completed timely both countries economy will be boom in the world. Due to this CPEC, China trust on Pakistan and India is also want to start a project like CPEC with the help of US according to the meeting of G20. So CPEC is the basic strength point relation between Pakistan and china.

Failures of CPEC Project:

Every project has some failure and success. Same as CPEC has both points. In its failure points CPEC become the day delay project for Pakistan but not for the china. following are the failures of CPEC

Delay in the project:

Due to continuous destabilization in Pakistan, It is the tension in Pakistan for its politics. In this scenario where lots of other projects are affecting, CPEC is also affecting in the way of delay.

Increase the cost of project:

Due to the delay in the cost of project the whole financial matter are disturbed for Pakistan. On the other side China is pressuring the Pakistan to complete the project timely which is another tension for the Pakistan.

Roads in Upper belt still not started:

In upper areas of Pakistan specially GB - Gilgit Baltistan the road network still not started that is the other cause of delay in the CPEC and the failure of the project.

Increase dis-hormony in Balochistan Balochistan is an important province of Pakistan. Due to this CPEC project, Baloch people are very tensed about their future. This means the delay in the project is very crucial for development of Pakistan.

Weak the provincial conflict in Pakistan:

CPEC one of the failure is its two road route, that are best for the infrastructure but in Pakistan people supposed that one province is in benefit from the other due to the turns in the roads of CPEC.

Lacked of opportunity for skilled youth:

As CPEC given the opportunity to youth for the skill-ful programs. But these programs are not be strengthen because youth has no job or opportunity to make its practical skills.

Difference of Success & Failure

- | | |
|------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| → Inogration of Gwadar port. | → Delay in the project |
| → Renewable energy projects. | → Increase the cost of project |

- Skill program for youth → Lack of opportunity for youth.
- Road network completed in lower belt → Road network not started in upper belt-
- Strengthen the relation of both countries → Increase disharmony in Balochistan.
- Provincial conflict in Pakistan.

Conclusion:

In the battle of success and failure, CPEC is very crucial for the Pakistan. As China and Pakistan has decay in this project now this project need to work on his failure sector to make them successful.
