a common ground of to the individual to boost up their speed, in order to achieve their respective goals. Artificial intelligence have provided a track to speed up the weaponization game, production capacity for rapid development, profit margin and manipulating of audiences. However, artificial intelligence was introduced in support to the human nature.

Don't enlist the points in introduction

Deterrence against other states, economic growth, effective human facilitating devices, and helping material in various fields, are the central points for which humans are competing. Yet, it is a severe threat for the mankind, due to the human nature.

Completely out of context of essay

Artificial Intelligence is the most advance innovation of 21st century, which has the potential to change the dynamics of the world. It owns the potential of integrating in any field, thus benefiting the entire mankind. But, unfortunately due to global politics and conflicting relations, artificial intelligence is mostly used in the field which are meant to harm the humans, maintain or secure hegemony or to boost up the profit margin. The contribution of artificial intelligence is negligible in the human favourable domain then its negative impacts. Therefore, artificial intelligence advancement is red alerts, and demands proper thoughts to eradicate the negativities and avail the positivities only.

That is not what the topic is about

The topic is can. Meanign what does it have the potential for not how humans use it,

Introduction of artificial intelligence have provided a new dimension and hope for manufacturing autonomous weapons and upgrade the existing weapons with artificial intelligence, modern to improve the state's defence system.

Undoubtedly, earlier the weapons were getting upgraded but had human intervention which had prevented the eruption of humanitarian crisis. However, the launch of artificial intelligence have provided a platform to develop autonomous weapons with negligible human interference. An international company "GHOST ROBOTICS", have developed a dog robot ~~equipped~~ equipped with weapon, to be used in wars against human. Such scenarios proves that artificial intelligence is promoting the human race by adopting evil means.
