Date
	Name: Aiman Muntaz
	Roll no: 7827 de la calles nos de is a second of the second of t
	Question no 2
	1 Introduction:
	The 1973 constitution established parlimentary system in Pakistan. The President is the titular head of the country and the enecutive powers are vested with the Prime Minister and cabinet. The 1973 constitution of Pakistan embodies the principles of Jeder alism, delineating a governance structure that balances between the central government and provinces. The President enjoys the vast excutive authority. appoints the Governers, Chief Justice, and of Anny stary, the Navy and Air force.
	of is also the head of Armed forces
	Dr. Riffat Hassan Said:
	16. Tederalit ramework 1973 constitution reflects a number accomposition
	regional aspirations, Jostering a sense U

Date:
of unity while preserving the richress 2 - Loisit of Leauson as mount in The 1973 constitution of Paki.
그리고 그 그리고 🖟 📕 💮 💂 그는 그는 그리고 stan:
(i) Distribution of powers:
The constiturial	_ framework of 1973 for clearly defines the allocation of powers between the pederal and provincial authorities. It establishes distinct domains, ensuring a harmonious coenistence of national a harmonious coeminance and regional interests
(ii) Parlimentary system:
The constitution	1000
institutes a parlimentary system emphazie the vole of Jederal legislature. This system promotes postering a unified approach to national issues.
(iii) Provincial Autonomy: (Asticle-173)
(iii) Provincial Fluorioning.
One of the key peature of the constitution es provincial autonomy. It grants Lindred - Applionage Secretary

	Date:
	provinces a level of self governance and headed by lederal system	1
1	of Pakuslan.
	(iv) Preservation of Regional Diversity:
	The spix	et
	of Jederalism in the constitution reco	gnize.
	and preserves the wich cultural, lingu	ustic
	and historical diversity with the	و ا country	-
	(V) Cooperation and Co-ordination:	0
	Jeder
	as shined in the 1973 constitution, an to poster to cooperation and woon	dination between the central government	and provinces. This collaborative approac 3125.	ensures the effective functioning of the state Article - 154 define all the	٨٠
	3- Measures por the smooth fun	वionine of relations between the center and The provinces: Follows
	me asures are taken for the smooth functioning of relations betweenth	th functioning of relations betweenth	ie
	D U

	Day:
	(iv) Financial Autonomy: Financial
	autonomy for provinces through equitable resources distribution can poster a sense of ownership and empower ment, reducing dependency on the central government. Article -153 describe the distribution of Jinancial resources between the center and the provinces.
	(v) Dispute verdution mechanism:	_
	Implenting effective dispute vesolution mechanism, such as constituti-9/20	onal courts or arbitration bodies	_ can address conflicts arising	- answer lacks specific mea	surés om jurisdicational issues between	- 100 writing style		_
— is good	4- Conclusion:
	In essence, the 1973 constitution of Pakistan establi-	_ shes a jederal system that strikes a balance between centralized authority and regional autonomy.	_
	Its sets for the for the foundation	_
	us sees	1

	Day:
many me	e and diverse nation, asures including education and awass	resource allocation can th me asures between eal and the provinces.
	Question no 1
1- Introdu
evolving s	socio-political landscape of the	country. They played tant rale in shaping the dynamics	structure and power , within the country.
to the A	undamental law of the issuls, a	elapting to societal changes or improvi. cture. It	ng the governance stru- refers to the changes

 Day:
or modifications made to the.	T
country is constitutions	_ to seriazione shullo:
"Consulutional amend to be a reflection of our commit- ment to democracy, ensuing ment to democracy ensuing	-
the protection of rights and the
the protection of rights and the 2- Significance of major constitutional amendaments in Pakista
, & political history:
The 1973 constitution	2
of Pakistan laid the joundation jor
the current constitutions of Pakistan, différent amendaments in this constitution address issues related to provincial autonomy, parliment structure and 'islanic principles.
(i) Figteenth Amendament:
rigteentle Amendament 15 significance is:
(a) Sieteenth amendament strenglië of the pederal structure.
(b) It plays role in the distribution of

(m) M (Date:	_ - powers between the center and the provinces.
	(ii) Nineteeth Amendment: Ninettelh
	amendament contributed to a more robust and effective parlimentary democracy.
	(iii) Twenty first Amendment:
	This
	amendment 1s significance is:
	(a) It demonstrate d'a respons to security Challenges.
	(b) It albeit with debate over civil liberties.
	(iv) Twenty-jith Amendament:
	Vac or reg
	Jith Amendment "mainstreamed Gara 1 se deval administrated trabeal aso as). It also entend considurante rights and representatives to its and out a
	2 al Those amendaments shapes	7 the country's legal and political all reliable with resident to the Day:

	ramework:
ja-	The constitutional amendments in Pakistan have play, a pivotal role in shaping the country's lesal and political trame work:
	(i) Enhancelle Povincial autonomy: Eighteenth amendm. ent enhances provincial autonomy by devolving more powers to the provinces, and give them greater control over their appars and resources. ii) Strengthened Parlimentary system: × Nineath Amendment strengthed
THE COUNTY AND THE CO	The parlimentary system by limiting Access to the control of the control	presidential powers and by empowering	Law St. Paris the prime minister.	- N
and the second s	iii) Established mililary court:
	Che .
	of the Amendment provided constitutional cover for military courts to try civilians involved in terrorism cases. Juenty- first Amendament aims to expedite justice in the face	