

How to Avoid Cyclic History

Q2- The repetitive histo nature of history constitutes of rise and fall of generations. This is because hardships create the qualities to become strong. However, the deterioration of such qualities pushes man back to the state of hardships. Therefore, to avoid weakening of a man, the qualities of hardwork and resilience must be taught to him. ~~to ensure~~ As a result, he would make independent meaningful contribution. Hence, a sustainable period of prosperity is ensured and the risk of historical repetition is avoided. Such was the vision of the founder of modern Dubai, Sheikh Rashid who has committed on Human Resource Development. This would ensure the strength of Dubai in times of hardships.

Q3. Passage

1. A. The Five years old girl was in critical condition when she was found by the Turkish soldier. She was freezing to death since the temperature was minus 5 degrees. Since her parents were being killed, she cried at the top of her lungs out of fear and cold. It was when the Turkish soldier came to rescue her.

2. The young Turkish Soldier found Ayda during the Korean Wars. After finding her, he came to know that her parents have been killed in the war. Hence, he decided to take care of her. He acted like a father to her and named her Ayda. The entire military camp became her family. When Turkish he took care of her for one-and-a-half year until they left. They were seen as crying when they got separated showing their strong attachment to each other.

3. After being separated from Ayda, Selimyan took many measures to find her. First, the South Korea rescue team came after the Gökük earthquake. He hoped that Ayda may have come too. Second, he gazed through the spectators in a T.V screen on which Turkish National Team was playing for in South Korea for world cup. For year he thought about Ayda and hoped that he would meet her one day.

4. Ayda was finally discovered, and she met Selimyan. During the 60th anniversary of Korean War, Selimyan shared the story which was later investigated by a Korean Journalist. A man claimed that his sister was acquainted with Ayda. When Ayda was found, she was shown the old photos. She came in tears.

and hailed Sulayman as her hero.
She finally met Sulayman.

5- The story of Ayla and Sergeant Sulayman gained traction throughout the world.

In 2017, a Turkish production "Ayla: the Daughter of War" was inspired by their story. The same film was selected as Turkey's official candidate for the best foreign film for Oscars. The story is heartwarming for millions around the world.

Q4 Sentence Correction-

i) Good children always listen to their parents.

iii) Not only was he a teacher but also a renowned researcher.

v) Hardly had he reached the station when the train left.

viii) The salesman expected that he would present his product at the meeting, have time to show his slide presentation and hear questions from prospective buyers.

vi) Pakistan won by 5 runs and a wicket.

Qr(A) Punctuation

A young man recognised a minister. The minister was eating at a famous restaurant. After the meal, he asked for the bill. The waiter said, "Sir, the guy sitting in front paid your bill." He was surprised, so he went to the young man and shook his hand. "Why did you pay my bill," the minister asked. "Are you the minister?" the boy smiled. "Yes", the minister nodded, and then the boy said, "we also pay your electricity, gas and phone bills, why not the food?"

Qr(B)

- i) The book is lying on the desk
- ii) Send this book to my address.
- iii) Pakistan is to the west of India.
- v) She quarreled over a trifle.
- vii) He is arriving by 3:15 train.

Qr(A)

- i) Driving a sedan on off-road is like a fish out of the water.
- ii) He gave the devil his due by giving a man the wrong direction.
- iii) People often go the the wall to prove their point correct in a conversation.

v) Driving fast in heavy traffic is like playing with live wire.

vi) The deviant behavior of the child drew his patience ~~to~~ on pin and needles.

Q6B)

(i) LION: ROAR (a) Snake: Slither

(ii) (b) (LOT: BLOOD) (b) Curdle: Milk

(vii) WOOD: FURNITURE (d) Stone: Sculpture

iv) SURGEON: Dexterous (d) Acrobat: Agile

(v) SHADOW: LIGHT (c) Reaction: Action

Q7- Translation

If you have ever been on an International travel and have taken a transit flight from Dubai, Qatar, Kuwait, etc., you would have observed a peaceful environment on the gate where travellers from Japan are waiting for their flights. They have similar body languages, clothing styles, disciplines and facial expressions. If you pass through German gate, they have the same scenario. Visit Malaysia, China, Spain, Australia and New Zealand, and you will find almost the same conditions. You will witness national unity among them. When you reach Pakistani gate, you would see multiple nations. Majority of them would have blank faces and the children could be heard crying.

Half of them will be wearing pant-shirt and Jeans while the remaining will be in Shalwar - Kameez. At some places, you will find newly-wedded women with excited for their maavi honeymoon with henna on their hands while in other places you will witness old mother-in-law walking with Joint pain. In a corner, a young foreign-working man will be sitting with Sata on his neck and holding traditional toffees for the children while in other places a bureaucrat, travelling in the business class will be seen in a Sataki Suit.