Precis Title = "Hardwork is Key to Success."

Ans: Interview with Sheikh Rashid was highlighted where he talked on ups and downs that are faced by alternate generations. He said that hard times create strong man, strong man create easy times, easy times create weak man and weak man create hard times. This transition happens due to luxuries and easiness. ~~He~~ ~~can~~ Sheikh Rashid gave example of Dubai when it progressed in short time from camels to luxury because people were consistent, committed to overcome hardships and knew the significance of education to raise their generations and flew high up to luxurious lifestyles. But he also emphasized that when societies become rich then comfort weakens the man. At that time the society should balance both comfort and commitment. It should work persistently on its infrastructure, technology and development of human for long term success and prosperity. Rashid's view is that long term winning requires educated and aware nation that works continuously for its development and he emphasized to raise awareness in the society who are hard working.

and know the importance of education, not the parasites who rely upon others for their self benefits.

Q7 -

Ans: If you had ever travelled on international flights or taken transit flights from Dubai, Qatar, Kuwait etc you must have observed the passengers who would fly to Japan they are sitting on the gate which has very peaceful environment and <sup>approximately</sup> they all look alike from their features, appearances, clothes, culture and discipline. While walking ahead if you cross German gate, same is the case there. Other countries would also have same situation like Malaysia, China, Spain, Australia, New Zealand you will observe national unity in them. When you reach Pakistani gate you will see diversity instead of national unity. Majority having sad faces, you will hear children crying, Half of them dressed in pant shirts or jeans, some in shalwar kameez. You will see brides with mehndi on their hands eagerly waiting to meet their spouse, old woman walking with joint pains, some young man sitting in the corner who came from another country for labour carrying luggage on their shoulders and foreign toffees in their hands for children and some bureaucrats in full suit travelling in business ~~to~~ class.
