Titles: "Evolution of Dubai"

An interviewer asked Sheikh Rashid the founder of modern Dubai about the success of Dubai. He replied that his father was a camel rider and he drives luxury cars and his great grandson will ride a camel also. He told hard times create strong men and strong men create easy times which create weak people and weak people again make tough times. He further told that they need warriors. During his leadership Dubai turn from desert to a modern city. But he predicted that they will return to camels as easy times creates weak men and ~~strong men~~ ^{weak} creates tough times. From warriors he means to grow a strong and powerful generation for future who are strong enough to face every situation not like those who rely on other people achievements without any hard work. Sheikh Rashid's vision show the importance of education and hard work through which societies can survive. & with the increasing growth of Dubai they need to maintain a balance between innovation and luxuriousness, investing in infrastructure they also need to invest in humans for long lasting success of Dubai. Sheikh Rashid's wisdom serves that countries can get prosperity through hardwork and talented individuals. From this history societies should learn that they can handle hard time which prepares them for future.
