

Question 03

Comprehension

(i)

Ans There were severe conditions for the five year old girl in 1950 when she was found by Turkish soldier Suleyman. There was intense cold and the temperature had been dropped minus five degree. In this shivering cold, the girl was in shattered clothes, and she was crying loudly. Moreover, the ongoing war was responsible for increasing the fear of small girl. The war had killed whole of her family. Surrounding by these conditions, she was about to die. Hence, these were the conditions when Suleyman, a soldier of Turkish army, founded the ^{little} small girl.

(ii)

Ans: The young Turkish Soldier found the little girl due to war and he took care of her just like her own daughter. The ongoing war in Korea had snatched everything from the girl but gave him a father in the form of a Turkish soldier Sulyman. He took this girl to military camp and named her "Ayla". The whole of the military camp treated her as their daughter. He loved the girl so much that they had established an unbreakable bond between them. To cut long story short, in this way, the Turkish soldier found a girl and treated her like her own daughter.

Day: _____

Date: _____

(iii)

Ans: Suleyman took various practical actions in order to find again the girl after war had separated them. For instance, searched Ayla, the girl, among football ^{match} spectators of football world cup match happening in Korea. During Earthquake in Turkey, he hoped for the arrival of Ayla with rescue team sent by her country. At the anniversary of the Korean war, he shared his and Ayla in order to reunite with him. These were all the steps that Suleyman had taken for finding the girl again.

(iv)

Ans Ayla, the little girl, was found again by the investigation of a journalist and she became emotional after seeing old photos. After the journalist shared a story of Ayla and Suleyman, a man claimed her sister knew Ayla. In this way, she was found. When she saw the old photos, she burst into tears. She realized that everything had come back to her life. Moreover, she was remembering her hero Suleyman who treated her as his daughter. To conclude, the effort of journalist and Suleyman reunited the girl and the Turkish soldier, and the girl became sentimental after seeing old photos.

(v)

Ans: The story of Ayla and Suleyman had a profound impact and this story was screened in the popular culture of Turkey. The emotional impact of this story forced Korean government to invite Suleyman for meeting Ayla. Moreover, the emotional factor forced journalist to publish this story in with a sole purpose of reuniting both. Furthermore, it had also impacted the culture of Turkey. This story was converted into a film and was nominated for Oscar award. This film also left an emotional impact on viewers. In this way, the story of Ayla and Suleyman impacted people and Turkish culture.

Day _____ Date _____

Question no 05

(9)

Punctuation

Ans)

A young man recognised a minister. The minister was eating at a famous restaurant. After the meal, he asked for the bill. The waiter said, Sir, the guy sitting in front paid your bill. He was surprised and he went to the young man and shook his hand "Why did you pay my bill", the minister asked. "Are you the minister?" the boy smiled. "Yes", the minister nodded. Then the boy said, "we also pay your electricity, gas, and phone bills why not the food."

(b)

Prepositions

- i) The book is lying on the desk.
 - ii) Send this book to my address.
 - iii) Pakistan is in the west of India.
 - iv) He has been away for last two months.
 - v) He is arriving at 3:15 train.
-

Question no 07 Translation

If you had either travelled internationally or travelled in transit flight from Dubai, Qatar, ~~Ku~~ and Kuwait etc, you would have observed that the gate had peaceful environment where Japanese travellers wait for the flight. Approximately, they all have same dress and manner, discipline and appearances. You would find the same environment at the German gate. You would see the same environment and national unity at the gates of Malaysia, China, Spain, Australia, and New Zealand upon visiting ~~at them~~ them. Upon visiting Pakistani gate, you would find diverse people instead of a nation. Moreover, you would see the majority of sad people, screams of children, and the people wearing shorts, jeans and traditional dress. Furthermore, new brides with hennaed hands are impassionate for meeting with bridegrooms, old mothers-in-law with joint pain,

Day: _____

Date: _____

and young youth, working in foreign countries, having a shawl on ~~their~~ shoulders and imported toofes for children in hands, and bureaucrats wearing suit and ticket holders of business class are found here.

Question 05

Correction

v) Pakistan won ^{by} an inning and five runs.

iii) Not only he was a teacher, but was a renowned researcher

vii) A little elegance is left in this arrogant youth

ii) ~~Speech~~ Speech is a silver, Silence is a gold

iv) Through looking the view finder, some Strangers could be seen

Question 02

Precise

Title: Humans: A driving force of Social Progress

Strong men contribute to social progress while weak bring the downfall of a society. Historically, the societies have faced rise and fall due to the contribution of their men. During the time of crisis, strong men acquire essential skills that are needed for society. They paved the way for social progress with their contribution.

However, during the time of prosperity, weak men emerge as a result of unlimited comfort. These men invite the downfall of the society. Again strong men are produced by difficult time. In this cyclic process, humans contribute to rise and decline of the society. The visionary leader of Dubai has also explained this cyclic process in his interview. He refers to strong men as "warriors" and weak men as "parasites". The only option that could save the societies from this cyclic downfall is investing in humans. By investing in human, this process could be tackled.