Q2:

Title: "Proactive Approach on Cyclical Pattern Between Adversity and Prosperity"

Precis:

Sheikh Rashid, the founder of modern Dubai shared said that hard times produces strong men, strong men creates easy times and easy times create weak men. According to him its a cyclical nature of rapid development and potential regression. This cyclic process can be overcome by developing flexibility and strength. The strong men creates easy time which leads to the production of weak men. Therefore the need of hour is to create warriors not the parasites. Warriors are not physically strong rather being vision of creativity.

and determination. On the other hand parasites are non-creative and lazy.

Sheikh Rashid has shared his proactive approach on the continuity of prosperity by inculcating hardwork and self-reliance in individuals. As Dubai is progressing, it must focus on human development ~~but~~ ^{and} not only on infrastructure and Technology.

According to him, to ensure persistent prosperity one should acquire strong and determined character. Only by doing this, the cyclical nature of hard and easy times can be overcome.
