

Aysha Ichan

Batch: 64
Id: 33198

Essay

Globalization and humanrights progress and setbacks

Outline

1. Introduction:

- (a) Attention grabber
- (b) General statement
- (c) Thesis statement:-

"Though globalization where human has made progress in different fields like politics, education and economics, besides this it has also setbacks in the same way."

2. A: progress by globalization and humanrights:

(a) Freedom of movement

- (i) it enhance personal freedom
- (ii) Freedom to talk
- (iii) Freedom to choose occupation

(b) Leads economic opportunities

- (i) Allow workers to seek better wages
- (ii) Awareness about working hours and conditions
- (iii) Awareness about their fundamental legal rights

(c) Education and skills development

- (i) it gave the access to equal opportunities of education
- (ii) globalization has created opportunities for skill development
- (iii) globalization leads to the creation of international and national scholarships and grants

(d) Enhance in healthcare access and awareness

- (i) increased access to affordable medicines, vaccines and technologies
- (ii) it fostered collaboration on global health issues such as pandemic
- (iii) it is expanding healthcare to remote and underserved areas

(e) progress in legal protections

- (i) promoted the development of human rights
- (ii) protection of women's inheritance rights

(f) promoted cultural exchange

- (i) promoted cross-cultural understanding
- (ii) Globalization leads to efforts to preserve cultural heritage
- (iii) Enhanced opportunities of artistic expression

(g) Improvement in political awareness

- (i) facilitated in political mobilization
- (ii) Empower individuals to understand and claim their rights
- (iii) it supports highlighting human rights violations and promoting accountability

3: B: Setbacks of Globalization and human rights

(a) Increased in poverty and social justice

- (i) Exploitation of workers in developing areas
- (ii) Basic necessities become unaffordable for many
- (iii) Reduction in government revenue

(b) Human rights violations

- (i) increased of child labor in some countries and companies
- (ii) Forced labour of workers with coerced or deceived

(c) political debranchisement

- (i) Lack of transparency and accountability
- (ii) Marginalization of minority groups

(d) Environmental degradation

- (i) through it increase in pollution
- (ii) leads to increase inadequate waste disposal
- (iii) Resource depletion

(e) Loss of international sovereignty

- (i) challenges to democratic decision-making
- (ii) Dependency on global markets

(f) Cultural homogenization

- (i) Economic dominance by powerful countries
- (ii) Dominance of western culture

(g) Unequal access to resources

- (i) it leads to unequal distribution of resource
- (ii) Leads to privatization of resources and institutions

4: Conclusion: