

English Precise-Composition

Q4. Correct any (5) of the following.

Answers :-

v- He had hardly reached the station when he left the train.

iii- (Not only he was a teacher but also he) x

He was not only a teacher but also a renowned researcher. ✓ vi- Pakistan won by an inning and 5 runs.

ii- Speech is silver, but silence is golden.

i- Good parents always listen to their children.

Q6: Use any (5) of the following in your own sentence.

i- A fish out of water

Meaning:- Restless, someone who feels uncomfortable in particular situation.

Sentence:- My mother shocked to see my brother in a fish out of water.

iii - To play truant

Meaning: Child's play OR As a teenager, to slip away from school or work without permission.

Sentence: As a teenager, children mostly play truant from school to hang out with friends.

4. live wire

Meaning: Energetic and strong person.

Sentence:- A live person always has live wire in his dreams.

7. laconic speech

Meaning: Using very few words to express oneself.

Sentence: He made laconic speech to describe her personality.

3. Go to the wall

Meaning: To face ruin.
Sentence:

Nowadays, His Uncle's business goes down the wall due to enemy attack on his uncle's business.

(b) Analogies
Answer

1. LION : ROAR

(b) GOAT : Bleat

2. CLOT : BLOOD

(b) Cuddle : Milk

3. Expedite : Hasten

(c) Facilitate : Make easiest

4. Surgeon : Dexterous

(d) Acrobat : Agile

5. Shadow : Light

(b) Image : Object

Q5 (b)

Answers

i- The book is lying on the desk.

ii- Pakistan is to the west of India.

iii- Send this book to my address.

iv. He has been away for last two months.

v. She quasseted over a trifle.

vi. He has a pen to write with.

vii. He is arriving by the 3:15 train.

viii. After he did military service, he went to University.

(a) punctuate following Answers:-

A young man recognized a minister. The minister was eating at a famous restaurant. After the meal, he asked for the bill.

The waiter said, "the guy sitting in front paid your bill." He went to the young man and shook his hand. "Why did you pay my bill?" the minister asked. "Are you the minister?" the boy smiled.

"Yes," the minister nodded.
Then the boy said, "we also pay our electricity, gas and phone bills.
Why not the food?"

Q1: Answer

Precis with its title.

Title:

The cyclical nature of societal development.

Precis:

Sheikh Rashid, the visionary behind modern Dubai, eloquently described the cyclical nature of societal development. He used a metaphor to illustrate this: his ancestors rode camels, he drives a Mercedes, his descendants will revert to camels. This reflects the cycle where Create Strong individuals who lead to prosperity, which then leads to weaker individuals and subsequent hard times. Rashid emphasized the need to "raise warriors, not parasites," advocating for cultivating resilience, strength, and responsibility.

He warned that complacency and reliance on others' achievement lead to decline.
His vision highlights the importance of education and upbringing in fostering these values. As Dubai grows, it must invest in both innovation and human capital for sustained long-term success. Rashid's wisdom remind us that prosperity requires continuous effort, vigilance, and nurturing capable individuals. Understanding these historical cycles can help societies prepare for future challenges with strength and resilience.

Total words: 478

Precis - words: 160

Translation:

If you have ever traveled internationally and had a transit flight through Dubai, Qatar, Kuwait, etc., you might have observed that at the gate where passengers waiting to fly Japan sit, the atmosphere is calm, and they all appear almost identical in their gait, attire, discipline, and appearance. As you walk past the German gate the same condition will be there.

Spain ^{Australia} Visit the gates for Malaysia
, China and New Zealand, and the situations will be more or less the same, reflecting a national uniformity.
However, when you reach the Pakistani gate, you see a diversity instead of single nation. Some are dressed in half pants, shirts, and jeans, while others are in shalwar kameez. Newly married brides with hennaed hands eagerly waiting to meet their spouses, elderly women struggling with joint pain. In some corners, young men who have come to work abroad, sitting quietly with a turban on their shoulders and foreign candies for their children in their hands. In another corner, business class businessmen dressed in Safari suit.

Q2r Answer-

Q1r Ans:- The conditions for the five - years old girl in the winter of 1950 were harsh and tragic. She had lost her entire family in the war, leaving her alone and vulnerable. She was in a dire situation, which is when the Turkish soldier Suleyman found her.

Q2r Ans

Suleyman found the young Korean girl after learning that her entire family had been killed. He took her under his wing and treated her like his own daughter. He named her "Ayyla" because her face was shining under the full moon when he found her.

Q3r Ans

After they were separated by the war, Suleyman never stopped thinking about Ayla. When South Korea sent a rescue team after the Golluck earthquake in 1999, he hoped Ayla would come to find him. He also searched for her face in the crowds on TV during 2022 world Cup in South Korea, hoping to catch a glimpse of her.

Q4- Ans

When a South Korean journalist started investigating Suleyman's story. A man claimed that his sister had kept in touch with Ayla, whose official name was Kim Eunja. When visited at her home, the 65-year old Ayla recognized came flooding back. She was in tears and said that Suleyman was her brother.

Q5:- Ans 1.

The story of Ayla and Sergeant Meymun had a profound impact, warming the hearts of millions around the world. It was commemorated in the 2017 Turkish film Ayla; The daughter of war which was selected as Turkey's official candidate for the best foreign language film at the Oscars.