

Q2. Strong Individuals create strong communities

In an interview with Sheikh Rashid, the founder of Dudaï shared his views on societal development and future of Dubai. He said that his ancestors rode camel, he and his 2nd generation will drive Land Rover, but his 3rd generation will ride a camel because easy times create weak men.

He also warns regarding difficult times which demand strong men to be well equipped in both good and bad situations. Otherwise, being weak returns back to hard times.

Furthermore, he distinguishes between parasites and warriors stating that leaders should avoid being parasites and should be responsible enough to overcome challenges. Sheikh Rashid's story emphasizes upon holding such values that will enhance productivity of a society.

Thus Dudaï should maintain balance between strength and resilience. which focuses in investing more towards human capital. It reflects Sheikh Rashid's view of strong individuals creating a strong nation.

Q3.

Q1. What were the conditions like for the five-year-old girl in the winter of 1950 when she was found by the Turkish soldier Suleyman?

The conditions were vulnerable for the five-year-old girl as the country was going through war, temperature dropped to minus 5 degrees. She was holding fear in her eyes, looking at the surroundings. The girl was crying out loudly because of the cold weather when she had worn torn clothes. Here, she was found by the Turkish soldier, Suleyman.

Q2. How did the young Turkish soldier Suleyman come to find and take care of the Korean girl during the war?

Suleyman, being a part of the war found a little girl ~~Ayla~~ during the war. He took her under his wings after knowing that her entire family was killed. Later, he named her "Ayla" as she had a shining face and she got close with the entire military camp.

Q3. What actions did Suleyman take to try to reunite with Ayla after they were separated by the war?

Suleyman took some steps to reunite with Ayla after their separation. For example, when South Korea sent a rescue team after the Turkey Earthquake in 1999 and during the World Cup in South Korea in 2002, Suleyman hoped to see Ayla, but unfortunately never could.

Q4. How was Ayla eventually rediscovered after after many years, and what happened. Was her reaction upon being shown old photos?

Ayla was eventually rediscovered during the 60th anniversary of the Korean war when Suleyman shared his story with a South Korean journalist. There, a man claimed that his sister knew Ayla, and her real name was Kim Eunja. Following the whole story, when Ayla was ~~told about the story~~ got to know it and was shown the old pictures, she got emotional while saying that "Suleyman was her hero".

Q5. What impact did the story of Ayla and Sergeant Suleyman have, and how was it later commemorated in popular culture? The emotional strong between Ayla and Suleyman inspired the Turkish producers, which later became a slogan of popular culture and transformed into a movie named "Ayla: The Daughter of War".

DATE: ___/___/___

The story of Ayla and sergeant Suleyman gives a positive message to the world that no matter what, "Kindness always wins in the end." Secondly, another message that it gives is that ~~your~~ one's non-blood or non-family members can also be caring if they hold a kind heart.

Q4. Correct any FIVE of the following sentences.

- iii- He was not only a teacher, but a renowned researcher.
He had ~~hardly~~ reached the station.
- v- The train left when he had ~~hardly~~ reached the station.
- i- Good parents always listens to their children.
- ii- Speech is silver & silence, gold.
- iv- Looking through the view finder, some strangers could be found.

Q5A A young man recognized a minister; the minister was eating at a famous restaurant. After the meal, she asked for the bill. The waiter said, "Sir, the guy sitting in front paid your bill." He was surprised! He went to the young man and shook his hand, "Why did you pay my bill?" the minister asked. "Are you the minister?" the boy smiled. Yes! The minister nodded. Then the boy said, "We also pay your electricity, gas and phone bills "why not the food?"

Q5 B.

Re-write the following sentences after filling in the blanks with appropriate prepositions.

(i) Send this book at my address.

(ii) He is arriving at 3:15 train.

(iii) The book is lying on the desk.

(iv) He has been away from last two months.

(v) She quarreled with a trifle.

Q6 (i) Life without friends is like a fish out of water.

(ii)

(viii) Thinking about the good old times is like to put back the clock.

Q7. If you have travelled internationally from Dubai, Qatar, Kuwait to Toronto, you ~~was~~ would have noticed that the gate from where the Japanese are waiting is much peaceful and they all look similar in terms of personality, clothes and looks. If you walk through the German gate, the situation there also would be similar, not just

DATE ___/___/___

This but Malaysia, China, Spain, Australia and Newzealand, all ~~such~~ states have somewhat similar situation. A symbol of national unity is seen here.

Similarly, if you come across the Pakistani gate, you will notice dis-unity among the citizens. Majority of people <sup>would be</sup> holding cold faces. Children would be seen crying.

Half of the people will be seen in formal dressing whereas other in informal. Somewhere newly wed brides on their way to meet their husbands while on the other hand old mother-in-laws with muscle pain would be found.

Labourers of Pakistan in some corner going abroad in search of jobs and bureaucrats being in formal dressing waiting to fly in business class would be found.