Question # 2:

Discuss the effectiveness and suggest ways to lessen the dependency on IMF Programs in Pakistan.

Answer:

Introduction:

Pakistan is an enrich country of natural resources. Pakistan contain glaciers, sea, 4-season, enough sunlight. By using the natural resources it can decrease the dependency of a country on loan or funding. But due to not management of resources, Pakistan needs to be loan to fulfill its expenditure. Loan or foreign investment is helpful at certain time but it is not good approach all the time.

By using natural resources, introducing vocational education, enhance the moral of investors, by reducing political turmoil, it is easier or approachable to deteriorate the dependency on IMF or other loan.

Effectiveness of Various IMF Programme :-

- ⇒ International monetary fund programme play effective role in different areas to uphold Pakistan. It uphold the Pakistan's economy. otherwise, Pakistan may be default.
- ⇒ It enhance the efficiency of the institutions. When the institution have budget, then they perform better. They fulfil their work and complete the demand of work.
- ⇒ It play important role to encourage the local investor to invest in the business. it give the opportunity to international investor to invest the business

Suggestion:

- ⇒ Pakistan must decrease their expenditure. Because the budget don't match the expenditure and resources. so, it harmful for the growth of Pakistan.
- ⇒ Apply the taxes on Real-estate, industries, sugar mill, and make an effective system to collect the taxes.
- ⇒ To decrease the political turmoil, local and foreign investor will be want to invest in Pakistan. But when there is instability b/w political parties, then how a man or company invest in that country. so, it is need to be upgrade the political system or political parties.
- ⇒ Use natural or renewable energy resources to generate electricity, to save the water. Hydal power, sunlight, biofuel, geothermal energy, can be used then the prices of electricity bills, can be low.

⇒ Make solid and strict policies to ensure the stability in the country. To engage the institution with public to ensure the help of needy people.

⇒ For certain time, the industrialists, real estate, govt institutions, will decrease their ~~insti~~ expenses. Then the dependency on IMF can be decrease.

Conclusion:

Pakistan have potential to do work for the sake of Public interest. But for this purpose, govt make strict policies to ensure the law and order. IMF program is significant for certain time. We can not depend all the time on IMF program.

For the sake of this purpose, we must take action, use its natural resource, upgrade our institution to decrease the socio-economic turmoil. It is possible to lessen the dependency on IMF.

Question #6

The elusive political stability is Pakistan's real road block to growth. Discuss.

Answer:

Political system of Pakistan is entangled with chaos. There is always a race b/w the political parties. Every political party want to rule the country. They think that they can change the system of Pakistan and within some days, it will rule in the world. But actually it is not possible in midnight. For this purpose, a long strategy, political stability, socio-economic stability is needed.

Political stability.

Political stability play effective role in the development of country. If a country's political system is stable, then economy will also be stable. then it may increase the development of the country.

Effectiveness of Political stability:-

Political system is stable, it increase the investment in the country. There are more opportunity to increase the stability and decrease the chaos in the country.

Pakistan Political system since independence:-

Pakistan political system is instable since its independence.

After the death of Liaqat Ali Khan, Pakistan's political system under the dictatorship. Pakistan change its seven prime minister during seven years of their independence.

There are always a dictator who dissolve the assembly and abolish the constitution. At that time, the political instability at that time is higher. After that time, still it is going throughout. Due to instability, Pakistan can not achieve their goal to stable economy and decrease the rate of rich-poor class and b/w political parties. Stability of political system is the golden chance to achieve the goal and prosperity in the country.
