

"Give a man a fish, and he will eat for a day. Teach a man how to fish and you feed him for a lifetime."

I. Introduction

"It is truly stated here that instead of providing a ready-made resource, a man must be taught on how to produce it first."

II. How a ready-made resource make man a slave and dependent.

a) Curiosity would be dead at an individual level. (Most children and teenagers rely on their parents.)

b) People will become beggars instead of choosers. (Funds/Policies in exchange of votes).

c) Independent nations will rule over weakened societies. (Pak-US relationship on War on Terror, Policies of IMF).

III. How a learned man will overcome the hardships.

a) Virtues; self reliance and resilience, must be taught from the very early age.

b) A learned <sup>man</sup> would ask question and never beg. (End of Dynastic Politics in India).

c) A learned man would not only feed himself but also the society in whole. (Russia after being the 2nd most sanctioned country in the world, FDR's New Deal Policy).
