Translation

If you have ever traveled internationally and have taken transit flight from Dubai, Qatar, Kuwait etc then you may have observed that the passengers, waiting on the Japan going gate have a serene environment and almost all appear same in terms of walking style, clothes, discipline and facial features. If you continue walking in front of German gate, there you will see the same situation, even if you visit Malaysia, China, Spain, Australia, New Zealand: all of them have same condition. A national unity will be observed. When you reach Pakistani gate, despite a nation, you will see there tension. Most of the people faces are worn out, babies crying. Some wearing Pant shirts, some wearing Jeans and some in shalwar kameez. Some newly wed brides with decorated hands waiting for husbands desperately and some old worn out mother in laws walking. In some corner a labour returning home after with toys in hand and some bureaucrats wearing safari suits of business.
