

Name: Urooba Shafique

Roll no: 32625

Batch: 59 (Online)

Subject: English ~~Essay~~ Precie & Composition

Date: 9-July-2024

QUESTION NO 2: Mock Exam

PRECIE

INSTILLING RESILIENCE IN ADVERSITY AND PROGRESS

The founder of Modern Dubai once shared an insightful observation on the recurring trend of societal progress and regression. As he boasted about his luxury car, he foresaw his future generation reverting to their ancestors' mode of transport — camels. It is because hardships offers resilience providing path to create easy times, however, as ease prevails, it again stems hard times. Combative spirit is what determines a man's strength. This transformation from regressiveness to modernity and vice versa emphasizes the cyclic nature of adversity and opulence. Crisis instills steadfastness and perseverance leading to prosperity. While easy lifestyle diminishes fighting spirit and emotional toughness inviting adversity again. A warrior spirit is inculcated through resilience and responsibility presenting a sharp contrast to the laziness induced by parasitic living. Through education, such qualities can be nourished reducing the peril of societal downfall ensuring prolonged prosperity. Hence, the transient nature of prosperity can be overcome through strict vigilance of resilient, steadfast, and mentally strong people ensuring prolonged societal development.

Total words: 511

Precise: 169 words

QUESTION 3

READING COMPREHENSION

QUESTION 1

In the winter of 1950, when the five years old girl was found by

Turkish Soldier Suleyman, Korea was experiencing devastating war situation marked by brutality and bloodshed all around.

The temperature was as low as -5 degrees, when the five years old girl shivering with bursting cold standing ~~amidst~~ and checking her surroundings with ultimate shock and fear. Wearing piece of tattered clothes, the miserable girl was crying extremely loud in a state of shock due to the prevailing war experience. Therefore, for the five years old girl, the conditions were of severe deprivation, gloomy and fear when she was found by Suleyman.

QUESTION NO 2

The young Turkish soldier Suleyman came to find and take care of the Korean girl during the war when the recent war situation has afflicted severe psychological shock on the girl. Suleyman came to know that her entire family had been killed in the war and she was the only one left survived for lifetime woes and sufferings. Feeling a profound empathy for the innocent girl, Suleyman took the girl in his lap and took her to his camp where he became her father figure providing love, compassion and emotional stability to the child. Not only did Suleyman, but the entire military camp became family of the girl. With immense love and affection for each other, soon the father and daughter became inseparable. Thus, such were the prevailing conditions when Suleyman rescued the girl and then started to take care of her.

QUESTION 3:

After Suleyman and Ayla were separated by the war, Suleyman throughout his life struggled to reunite with his daughter he had left in the orphanage years ago. Initially his actions concerned looking and thinking of ~~Ayla~~ ^{Ayla} by chance. He hoped that Ayla would come to meet him when the South Korean rescue team was sent to Turkey during Golcuk Earthquake in Turkey. He also vigilantly gazed spectators on TV when Turkish National Football team was playing the World Cup in Korea hoping to get a glimpse of her in spectators. However, all the hope proved infertile. Therefore, as a last attempt during ceremony of 60th anniversary of Korean War, he narrated his story when he was 85 years old. Therefore, all his life Suleyman adopted these actions to reunite with Ayla.

QUESTION 4

After so many years, Ayla was eventually discovered when South Korean journalist began investigation after hearing the story through Suleyman in the reception ceremony. Upon investigating as a final ray of hope, a man claimed that his ~~father~~^{sister} had a contact with Ayla after graduation. It was found that her real name was Kim Eunja. When Ayla was visited at her home, she was shown old photos and she identified Suleyman with teary eyes calling him as her hero. Finally, the long lost father and daughter met and hugged each other after meeting several years later. Hence, Ayla was eventually discovered after many years.

QUESTIONS

The heartfelt story of Suleyman and Ayla, the long lost father and daughter left a profound impact for everyone. The compassionate story of love's ~~imp~~ never-ending hope and love was later on commemorated in the popular culture as the Turkish production took inspiration and made a movie on their story. Moreover, the film left a lasting impression on viewer and was selected for Oscar be; in the category of best foreign language film. Love, in every manifestation, touches the soul of millions, & similarly the father-daughter's separation yet deeply yearning passion of meeting won the hearts of public everywhere. Therefore, the impact of their story was profound and long lasting influencing the popular culture as well.

QUESTION NO 4

SENTENCE CORRECTION

1. Not only he was a teacher, but he was also a renowned researcher.

He was not only a teacher, but also a renowned researcher.

2. Hardly he had reached the station then the train left.

He had hardly left the station when the train left.

3. Real good parents always listen to their children.

Good parents, in real terms, always listen to their children.

4. Speech is silver, silence is gold.
Speech is silver, silence is golden.

5. Pakistan won by a inning and 5 runs.

Pakistan won by an innings and 5 runs.

QUESTIONS

PART A) PUNCTUATION

A young man recognized a minister. The minister was eating at a famous restaurant. After the meal, he asked for the bill. The waiter said, "Sir!, the guy sitting in front paid your bill". He was surprised. He went to the young man and shook his hand.

"Why did you pay my bill?" the minister asked. "Are you the minister?" the boy smiled. "Yes," the minister nodded then the boy said, "We also pay your electricity, gas and phone bills why not not the food!"

PART B. PREPOSITIONS

1. Send this book to my address
2. Pakistan is to ~~to~~ the West of India
3. The book is lying on the desk
4. He has been away since last two months.
5. He is arriving by 3:15 train

QUESTION 6 SENTENCES

Part a

1. A fish out of water
Dressed in simple and a modest clothing, in a party of ^{fashionable} elite social class, she felt herself a fish out of water, regretting on her decision to come to the party.
2. To give the devil his due
Although I dislike his lack of moral constant and bold manner, I will give the devil his due—he is exceptionally talented in debates.

3. Live wire

Argumenting on ~~my father's~~ with my father on his greedy and selfish relatives is like touching a live wire, therefore, I prefer silence.

4. A laconic speech

Francis Bacon, the famous essayist, was known for his aphoristic and laconic speech style of terseness, conveying a long discourse in the most ~~short~~ concise and efficient way.

5. To put back the clock

Part B) ANALOGY

1) Lion : Roar
Goat : Bleat

2. Clot : Blood
Curdle : Milk

3. Expedite : Hasten
Facilitate : Make easiest

4. Shadow: Light
Image: Object

5. Wood: Furniture
Stone: Sculpture

QUESTION 7: TRANSLATION

You might have observed during international travel and the transit flights to Dubai, Qatar and Kuwait that the gate where the passengers travelling to Japan are waiting for the flights, is a much more peaceful. They all have striking resemblance in their demeanors of clothing, discipline and even^m their faces. The same situation can be observed passing through the German gate. Visiting the gates of Malaysia, China, Spain, Australia, ^{and} New Zealand, will also present the same picture of national identity. Walking through the Pakistani gate gates present different features instead of national identity. Majority of them ^{can be witnessed} with dull faces, with children crying, some of them clothed in half paint shirt and jeans, while some dressed up in Shalwar suits, somewhere newly wed couple, walking hands-in-hand, ~~i~~ passi impassionate for meeting,

Date: _____

Day: _____

While ~~in others~~ somewhere, old mother-in-laws
with walking difficulty with joints pain, in another corner, ^{young} labourers working in foreign countries, with the same old toffees brought for the kids, and in other places dressed up in suits bureaucrats of business class.

