

Mock Exam 1

English (Precis And Composition)

(Part II)

QNO4: Correct Any five of the following sentences.

- i) Really good parents always listen to their children.
- ii) Speech is silver, silence is golden.
- iii) Pakistan won by an inning and 5 runs.
- iv) He had hardly reached the station when the train left.
- v) He was not only a teacher, but he was also a renowned researcher.
- vi) A little elegance left in those arrogant youths.

Q NOS: (A)

Punctuate the following Passage

A Young man recognized a minister. The minister was eating at a famous restaurant. After the meal, he asked for the bill. The waiter said, "Sir, the guy sitting in front paid your bill." He was surprised. He went to the young man and shook his hand. "Why did you pay my bill?" the minister asked. "Are you the minister?" the boy smiled. "Yes," the minister nodded. Then the boy said, "We also pay your electricity, gas and phone bills. why not the food?"

(B)

Filling in the blanks with appropriate preposition.

(i) The book is lying on the desk.

(ii) Send this book to my address

(iii) Pakistan is to the west of India.

(iv) He has been away for the last two months.

(vii) He is arriving on the 3:15 train.

(viii) After he did military service, he went to university.

(vi) He has a pen to write with.

Q No 6: (A)

(i) A Fish out of water: Sarah felt like a fish out of water after started her new job in a multi national company.

(iii) Go to the wall: The company will go to the wall to ensure customer satisfaction.

(vii) A Laconic Speech: The general delivered a laconic speech to his troops before the battle.

(vi) On pins and needles: She has been on pins and needles all day, waiting for the result of her job interview.

(v) Live wire: He is a live wire, always bursting with energy and ideas.

(B)

Choose the ANALOGY

(i) Lion: Roar (b) Goat: Bleat

(iii) Clot: Blood

(d) Brew: Coffee

(v) Shadow: Light

(d) House: Bricks

(vii) Wood: Furniture

(d) Stone: Sculpture

(viii) Lecher: Lust

(b) Glutton: Greed

(iv) Surgeon: Dexterous

(a) Clown: Fat

QNO7: Translate into English

If you have ever travelled internationally and take transit flight in Dubai, Qatar, Kuwait and so on, you may have observed that the atmosphere is pleasant at the gates where passengers of Japan wait for boarding. And everyone seems almost similar in their actions, discipline and appearance. While walking you crossing the German gate, there's also some situation. Whether you visit Malaysia, China, Spain, Australia, New Zealand the conditions are mostly the same. There is a sense of national unity. While walking when you arrive at the Pakistani gate, however, instead of seeing one nationality you will notice diversity. Most of them have sad faces. Children's crying. Some wear pent shirts and jeans, while others wear shalwar kameez. In one corner, there is a bride having henna on her hands awaiting her groom. In another, elderly mother-in-laws walking with ^{groin} pain. In some corners foreign labours sit quietly with scarf at their shoulders and carrying candies in their hands for their children. Meanwhile, there are passengers of Business class bureaucrats wearing safari dresses.

QNO2: Precis

Title: Sheikh Rashid Vision for Dubai

Sheikh Rashid, the founder of modern Dubai, shared his profound insight on the cyclical nature of societal progress.

He is using a metaphor of his family from riding camels to driving luxury cars and then back to camels, illustrate the pattern of development and regression.

Sheikh Rashid highlighted how difficult times create strong individuals who has been foster prosperity, while on the other hand easy times breed weakness, leading to future hardship. He emphasized the importance of raising education and responsible individuals.

His vision underscores the need for continuous efforts in education and for future challenges, ensuring that the prosperity is maintained through strength and resilience.

QNO3: Answers

Ans 1: A five-year-old girl cringed with cold, checking her surroundings, her eyes squinting with fear. It was the winter of 1950 when the temperature dropped as low as minus 5 degrees. The girl who was wearing nothing but tattered clothes, was crying so loud that her lungs were about to burst.

Ans 2: In the darkest hour of her very short life, this small girl was found by a young Turkish soldier Suleyman who took this little Korean girl under his wings after learning about her entire family had been killed. Suleyman named her "Ayda" (Halo) as her face was shining under the full moon when he found her. When Suleyman leave Korea and return home, he wanted to take Ayda.

with him, but it was not possible. Suleyman left for Turkey, while Ayla was put in an orphanage.

Ans 3: Suleyman looked for her when South Korea sent a rescue team to Turkey after the 1999 Gölçuk Earthquake and again during 2002 World Cup when the Turkish national football team played in South Korea, but he never found her.

Ans 4: Ayla was eventually discovered after a South Korean journalist investigated Suleyman's story, which is shared by Suleyman. A man claimed that his sister kept in touch with Ayla, whose name was Kim Eunja. When visited at her home, 65-year-old Ayla recognized by the old photos. She remembered everything then.