

QUESTION # 02:

Make a précis of the following passage and suggest a suitable title.

According to the Dubai's founder Sheikh Rashid, after every two generations the circumstances changed and this is cyclical process. Bad situation produces great men, and easy times make weak men. In simple, the need is to rise fighter, not pesticides. In his era, the transformation of Dubai from camels to luxurious style will return to camel by his great-grandson. This is cyclical nature, strong men comes after hard time and easy time again create weak men.

His saying "rise warriors, not parasites" is basically to aware the sensibility in the future generation. Warriors and Parasites are not here considered as physically strong or weak. The sense is how much capable to achieve something great.
