"Resilience Over Comfort: Dubai's Future"

04/20

The Cycle of Civilization

Sheikh Rashid, the founder of modern Dubai, shares a metaphorical insight into the cyclical nature of societal development, warning that prosperity can lead to complacency and eventual decline. He emphasizes the importance of raising resilient individuals with strength and a sense of responsibility, rather than relying on comforts and achievements of others. By understanding this cycle, societies can prepare for the future and foster adaptability, ensuring long-term success. The passage highlights the need for education, hard work, and self-reliance to sustain progress and mitigate the risk of societal decline.
