

From HomeFront to Frontlines: Women's Impact on National security and stability

Outline :

Introduction: A country cannot enjoy socio-economic development without national security and stability. No development is possible without inclusion of women.

This statement does not address the topic

(A) How women impact the national security and stability

If you are going to address it in a single heading then directly hit the topic, discuss the impact not how they impact it

- Women have the power to develop a peaceful family structure
- An empowered women strengthens family bond to promote stability
- Mother is the very first person to build ideology of their children
- Independent women boosts national security of the country

Repetitive

How does that impact national security or stability

Date: _____

e) Literate women dismantle terrorism to instill peaceful values

f) Civilized women play a leading role in environmental sustainability

g) Educated women maintain the integrity of the country

h) Healthy women promote prosperous society

i) Gender equality boost ~~economy~~ <sup>Stability</sup> of the country.

j) Climate change impacts reduced by empowering women

k) Women participation in peace talks empower marginalized group

Two concepts don't link directly without adding conditions

Conclusion:

Date: _____

M T W T F S

women are the builders of future. No development is possible without equal participation of women. Women is the key player to promote unity among people. A strong family structure contributes to the stability and prosperity of the society. Women play a pivotal role to eradicate conflicts among members of the family. She has the power to strengthen family bonds. It assists in reducing terrorism and extremism in the society. Educated women contribute to the society economy of the country and boosts its national security. Civilized women take care of the nature to promote environmental sustainability. They bravely challenge the natural disasters to ensure minimum loss.

No link to topic created in the attention grabber. It's also not a very good opening statement.

How is that relevant to the topic

They

By doing what?

Date: _____

They maintain the integrity of the nation/country by educating their children. Healthy <sup>Vague</sup> women promote peace and prosperity in the society. They pay strict <sup>Repetitive</sup> vigilance on their children to eradicate evil acts. Educated and strong children become precious assets of the country. Educated women contribute to socio-economic development of the country to eradicate poverty. They boost human capital of the country. A country cannot be stabilized without gender equality. All in all, empowered women are the bedrock of a civilized nation.

No transition and Cohesion between paragraphs

A stabilized family structure gives wings to the every member of the family. It boosts unity among them. It strengthens mental health of the members of the family. A person with strong mental health do not conflict. It is Why only then? If they are educated and others are not is it not the same? Is it only women's responsibility to care for household and family?

Date

only possible. When the women

You are to show the impact of women on national security and stability. Make women the active subject otherwise it something happening to them not something they are doing for the nation

What should be is not the concern, your heading is how based, you haven't elaborated the how, and your topic is effect based and you haven't elaborated the effect otherwise, the ~~decom~~ of stable family structure will be ~~com~~ late. It the women, who leads Irrelevant and unstructured You have no supporting argument And no example a family in an house. The leader should be educated, the members of the family wants to enjoy happiness in their life. A happy ultimately contribute to the peace and prosperity of society.

The topic is impact of women on national security not impact of family bond

Similarly, strong family bond has significant impact in the national security of the country. It was studied in

Name of study author publisher and publishing year

Finland that strong family bond reduces terrorism in the country, because the children

The structure is topic sentence explanation, supporting point then example. Not topic sentence then example

Irrelevant to the topic, no relation to women

ite: M T W T F S
Your topic sentence should be women have this impact on national stability/national security. And continue from there.

with strong family bond do not join terrorist organization.

However, strengthening family bond is only possible when

Again why only then?

women of the family are educated.

An educated mother cannot leave her children to damage the society and the country.

Same argument as previous paragraph
Women impact of family and that in turn impacts stability/security.
No structure, no Coherence.

As a whole, educated women play a significant role to counter terrorism in the country and promote to increase national security of the country.

Development of a country is possible with sustainable

No such point in the outline change in the society. Initially, change starts within yourself and at your home. Socio-economic problems cannot be resolved in isolation with ideological change and cultural shift.

From birth till to the puberty

Date _____

children's mindset and ideas are shaped by their mother.

Irrelevant to Women's impact on national Security and stability

If the country wants to bring a paradigm shift in the country. It is necessary to include women in the technological sector. Inclusion of women in the modern technological sector revolutionized the country.

High skilled and capable women nourishes strong minds. As a result, it change the <sup>overall</sup> society.

No paragraph (a)

Moreover, women's contribution in climate change is very impactful.

For what? Relate to the topic.

Currently, every country is facing severe issues due to bad climate. A country can minimize losses of the climate change by spreading awareness among women. The country needs to make them capable enough to take necessary steps.

What a country needs to do is irrelevant. The discussion is how women impact national stability and security by ensuring environmental sustainability.

before the natural disaster, most of the men are out of home in village areas, climate change badly impact the village areas due to lack of facilities. In such cases, women play the leading role in under developed countries. They need to be equipped with advance technologies to reduce climate <sup>change</sup> impact and boost national security of the country.

Irrelevant to the topic

In addition to this, women take special care of nature to make environment liveable. In European countries women have separate recreational gardens and parks. It helps to create a clean environment. The families come together to enjoy the beauty of nature in their leisure time. It strengthens

The next point is integrity of state one not this. Besides you have already addresses the environment point.

No relation to women Impact on anything

What do they do? How does that effect national security and stability

No such paragraph in the outline

Date: _____

their mental health and promote unity among them. Strong united nations do not involve in any conflict. It reduces crime rate in the country. It provides a healthy environment to the citizens of the country.

A(g)&(h) are missing.

In the same manner, national security of the country cannot be boosted without gender equality. Empowered women represent themselves in every platform of the country. They can raise voice for themselves. Women need to be given equal participation in every sector of the country. Like women in politics can fairly represent women. They become able to formulate policies and laws to eradicate societal evils in the country. It helps them to reduce domestic

The point in the outline relates gender equality to economy. Discuss participation impact of women on economic stability. This does not match your heading and does not show the impact of women violence, marital rape and other other mental and physical issues of women. Countering such crimes promotes a prosperous society. Paragraph A(j)???

Date: _____

These points are not in the outline.

Women participation in peace talks at the national and international level can resolve the issues of racial, gender and ethnicity. Currently, the world is destabilized due to ethnic and racial differences. Most of women are killed because of their race and ethnicity. It is the dire need of the state to empower their women.

Example? They

Empowered women raise awareness among them. It reduces conflict violence and ensure human fundamental rights. How? It boosts integrity of the country, and promote a peaceful society.

This is the point addressing Marginalised groups not integrity of the nation

Date _____

Maintain the sequence of the outline

~~Additionally, healthy women contribute to the national security of the country. They are capable and skilled. It adds value to the human capital of the country. As a result, it boosts the economy of the country. Empowered women contribute in decision making as they are healthy and have strong mental health. They are capable enough to take decision at the executive level. It eradicates gender discrimination. As a whole, the country's integrity will be boosted. It increases its national security.~~

No relation to role of healthy women
 No how explained

No example

In conclusion, women play a crucial role in promoting peace in the society. In the family setup, she is the wheel of the overall family. It is up to ~~women~~, either to strengthen unity among the members of the family or divide them into pieces. The country needs to educate women to boost its national security. Educated women raise effective leaders with advance mindsets. It helps the country to eradicate conflicts and violent crimes in the country, because educated women children do not dare to leave their members of the family and join any extremist party. Empowered women resolve the issues of marginalized groups to promote harmony in the society. They challenge every act of violence that hurts the stability of the society. In nut shell, women is the glue that keeps societies

That's not your topic

Poor expression lacks proper tone for a conclusion

Date _____

M T W T F S S

close and promote unity among them.