Raise Warriors, not Parasites

Sheikh Rashid, the founder of modern Dubai, once said that his grandfather rode a camel, his father rode a camel. He drives a Mercedes, his son drives a Land Rover, and his grandson will drive a Land Rover, but his great-grandson will have to ride camel again. Hard times create strong men, strong men create easy time. Easy time makes weak men, weak men create hard time. We have to raise warriors, not parasite.

Precis is written in Single passage

Sheikh Rashid wants to emphasize that the prosperity, and technological developments are not for granted, it must be earned. In order to maintain the prosperity, the new generation must be equipped with leadership skills, modern education and diplomacy.

Please review the precis rules.0

'Warriors' symbolize the new generation possessing perseverance, strength and resilience to overcome the challenges. Parasites' symbolize those weak people who rely on the accomplishments of others.

In order to keep Dubai growing and competing with modern world, there is a dire need to invest in human capital and impart adaptability and determination among its people. To make people better prepared for future, Sheikh Rashid emphasize on the need of developing resilience rather than weakness.
