Outlines:

Introduction:

Attention: We need to educate our men and women equally because the society runs with both of them.

Write in 3rd person

General statement: Give a brief overview of the statement

Thesis: Women can play a very crucial role with a very high impacts on the national security and stability of a nation state.

It could be happen through multiple ways like Politics, Sports, Science, Medicines, Businesses, and through other ways.

Thesis statement is vague. It does not states what sort of role. nor what sort of impact

Main body: Don't write the heading. Main Body. write a topic specific heading that specifics your segmentation.

(i) Stability through Politics:

How is that relating to their impact on national security & stability? what is the impact.

- ↳ Equal representation
- ↳ Equal and broad opportunities with no Glass-ceiling
- ↳ Reservation of seats along with general representation in the Country's Parliament.

Main headings should link to the topic

(ii) Through Education:

The point is not, what leads to the point is what impact women have

- ↳ Promotion of girl's education leads to national security and stability.
- ↳ Equal and same opportunities of be that of boys.
- ↳ Promoting them to higher ranks on the basis of Merit, not nepotism or bribe.

Main heading does not fulfil the criteria. It does not relate to the topic nor is it self explanatory.

Repetitive, changing the field. i.e. education to politics does not change the argument

(iii) Through Sports:

↳ Can an empowered women in Sport can give a clear message to the world.

What sort of message? How does that impact national security & stability?

Vague & unclear, No key impact written

- ↳ Advocate of Peace and harmony
- ↳ Encourage women to participate more in the Country's stability.

(iv) In justice and equalities

- ↳ Different institutions of the Country
- ↳ Different and eligible position
- ↳ If no barriers in ways, women can strengthen a Country more than a man.

(v) Businesses development

- ↳ Barrier free business ?
- ↳ From Entrepreneurship to most successful

How does that relate to the topic

Vague, Your main heading & sub-headings do not link to the topic

Conclusion

(vi) Religious Matters and Services

- ↳ Religion, women and State
- ↳ Role of Islam in the empowerment of women and its role over the world.
- ↳ Struggle for the Country's prosperity in the premises of Islam.

Unclear what the argument is about without the written title nothing in the outline points to the topic.

Conclusion:

The topic should be clear & indicated through each main heading.

Sub-headings are also vague & do not indicate what the paragraphs will be about.

A saying at the beginning of paragraph is "we should educate our men and women equally because the house work and the society is with them." It shows that how important is a women's role in the happiness and prosperity of a nation. Not the content for your essay. The content is national security & stability.

Population is half of the world, and there is no possibility deny them and deprived them from their services. They can perform their services in every sector and institution of the state. The half population can make the world even more beautiful and strengthen the nation. Their services are for enviable in the world but especially in Pakistan, where their being a conservative and patriarchal society, they are not encouraged and neither they get proper supports to showcase their talent. But still they are working and they worked hard to perform and do their part in the stability and national security of the state in many ways like in Politics, sports, Education, and serving in different institutions such as military, judiciary and human rights. Through these aspects of services, women, who are almost fifty-one percent of the country's population, done alot for the global security, national security and national stability besides the house-hold jobs as well.

The services for the country can not be denied and that is too in the field of politics. Their job in this field is like moon among the shining stars. The language is not suitable for academic discussion.

Intro is short. It should be 200-250 words at least and should follow a structure ^{SP} Stars shows indicate the number of male politicians. Their sparkle shows their services for the country's stability. Among the stars stars, it is the sun moon, whose brights even more. Moon shows the women in politics who are not in majority but still they has the capability to shine even more than the stars. It has possess the ability to shows path to the lost people in the dark and even guide them in more efficient way. That is not only in Pakistan's but the situation of global politics as well. A woman does devotes her self ^{SP} holy solely to the services and take it incumbents on her, that is why Brazil is the country with the highest number of women workers in their institutions followed by Mexico, whose main offices are being controlled by the lady officers. The institutions like judiciary, senate and not the parliament with the selection of Claudia as first President of Mexico in it's history are under rule of the women. Another one is a European state, considered ~~most~~ happiest country of the world Finland, whose former Prime minister was a young female name ^{SP} Sanna Marin. In her tenure, the country was such stable that the education was free for every mass and ranked ~~or~~ ~~to~~ second in the best education system. Such was the situation for national security, the country was an effective member of North Atlantic treaty organisations.

Irrelevant detail, overly flowery language. Pure description. No Analysis.

No impact on national security & stability ~~discuss~~

What is the impact of women's role in politics on national security & stability? The paragraph does not answer this question.

Unnecessary descriptors

Same was the situation in Pakistan in the reign of first woman Prime minister and the daughter of former Prime minister Zulfikar Ali Bhutto. The Prime minister Benazir was not only the first woman to drive the country of Pakistan but was also first in the muslim world to head and run the whole system of the country. She was the one who handover the world cup trophy to the winning Captain in her second tenure of her ruling which ~~was~~ the biggest achievement for Pakistan in the national security strengthening. This can be improved even more by giving more responsibilities to the women and reserving more seats for them in the Parliament of Country.

How is that her achievement? Did she play in place of the team? Handing over trophy is not an achievement of any Political sort.

Inherent Inherent no relation to the topic

Along the services in Politics, Pakistani women also ~~the~~ illuminate the country and strengthen the security of Pakistan. A girl in her teenage from the backward mountains of Khyber Pakhtunkwah, to the stages of United state of America is a big service and job - the girl was a brave Pashtun named Malala, who was shoot down by Militant in the area of Swat, because of the struggle of for girls education. Malala was not only a symbol of Pashtun and Pakistani nation, but a role model for all those girls who perform their service or who aims to do something great for the country. The young girl was ~~was~~ a laureate of Nobel prize for peace, that showed the world that not only ~~our~~ government, but even every

What was the impact on national security & stability?

Child is ^{The topic is not about children} a peace loving who can sacrifice their ~~lives~~ for the country's stability and prosperity - This is not only, but a lot of goals are there in the history ^{Who did they do?} performed alot for the country and its ^{How it impacted the security} fruit was very sweet - The seed of states ^{stability} which was sowed among other nation member and especially among women - These plants can be sapled ~~through~~ education and when it grow it will be distributed among different ~~areas~~ of the country to do what is good for the country - By investing equal on boys ~~and~~ girls, it will create a sense of equality, friendship and loyalty among the peoples. It will promote a corruption free, meritorious and clean society that was dreamed by many leader and the biggest need of the hour for Pakistan's national security and stability.

Strenuous and intense

Albeit, the ~~in~~ women performed and still doing in the ^{current} politics, education But the major thing that most commonly increasing in our youth day by day, and our history is full of such examples through which the image of Pakistan is become very soften is nothing but the Sports - Women of Pakistan did alot in the sports that presented them the advocate of peace and harmony to the globe. ^{Strenuous} It strengthened the economy and security by showing that supported and motivated women can do everything for the world and country. ^{ambition} ^{is clear point} Stability in this way or that way - The world that is thinking of Pakistan a ^{They did a lot of everything} ^{is not an argument}

change the stance about the national security of Pakistan which leads to the stability of national security

What was the impact on national security & stability?

When the the security issues are not there, the country progress for the stability is uncontrollable and that is the reason the European Union changed the business category to positive for Pakistan. Pakistani girls and women are on the good positions in the sports sectors of Pakistan. The examples are Zainab Abbas, a sport presenter present across the world, Aaliya Riaz, first female head of Pakistan Hockey Federation, not only factors of national security and stability but can be a link of connections among other country countries to give a message to get cooperate with each other in different sectors of life that can stabilize the economy of Pakistan upto some extent

By what logic does mountaineering links to business?

That journalism not sports

How? Again no impact discuss. You are only write that - participati here? - what does their participation result in?

The foremost factor that strengthen the Pakistan security and stabilize even more is the right for person for the right job - It means to assign the position on the merit regardless of the look, creed or something else - This what no promoting across the world. It make the women and even everyone to staunch the authorities and devote the services for the stability. Examples the promotion of Christian doctor Dr. Helen Mersey to the rank of Brigadier in Pakistan Army or the appointment of Aaliya Neelum

as the first Chief Justice of Lahore High Court ~~it indicates~~ that how these ladies would performed ~~for~~ the sake of Country ~~can~~ ^{No if does not} ~~reach~~ ^{It only shows their} great for the country. In the same way it is some ~~sort~~ ^{substance} of the break-

The world who considered Pakistan a worst place for minorities can take a lesson that how this country is gaining the trust of the minorities. The country ~~is~~ ^{is} providing equal rights to them, freedom of ~~religions~~ ^{religion} and even same opportunities of everything even in most secret matters as well. ~~to~~ This is what they play ~~especially~~ ^{How!} their women in the stability of the country.
~~Also, the~~ ^{the next} religious factor is also a ~~crucial~~ crucial one in the ~~at~~ country matter ~~especially~~ in the security ~~to~~ and stability. Along with the ~~other~~ factors, ~~the~~ Islam also give a role to the women in the country matter. where they can contribute in the stability, selection of ruler, performing different jobs i.e. businesses. In the old times, the women used to contribute in the country matters. They performed certain business and also took part in the wars

against Pagans in - the Peninsula of Arab.
The wars were not for their own interests
but for the sake of Muslims, Islam and State's stability. In those they even embraced to death just to make the Country strong.
The women also took part in the selection of Caliph after the Holy prophet. This ^{was} ~~to~~ why just to know their opinion about the person (caliph) going to be selected as head, whether he is good for good for the Muslims population, suitable for the government and possess the capability to strengthen the Muslim state even more and provide victories to Islam. According to an Author, the Hazrat Ali (R.W) was assigned to the task to ~~acquire~~ the women opinion
regarding the selection of Hazrat Umar and Usman. In this way they women took part in the stability of the Islamic Country by selecting a suitable person for the job.

Start the conclusion with a conclusive

Structure*

A Society has two tiers: The man ~~phrase-~~ and woman. If there is only a single,
the society would be unable to run one that. Similarly the world has almost the same population of men and women,
if a same small society can't go on one,
who the world with a population of billions be would be prosperous with out the services of women. The women's services is clear to everyone but the services of the other tier is obscure in the stability and security globally and Country-wise. Like in Pakistan. In Pakistan, the society is male dominating and there are some sort of restriction and barricades in the ways of women to perform whatever they want to do for Pakistan. Here their male snatches the credit of women when they do something great except a few who used to support their women whatever the situation do they have - they encouraged them to break the obstacles and chains and for the success and prosperity of family, nation and for the national security along with the stability in different fields. Such women do not think about the failure and perform the services in multiple field like Politics, Education, sports or by serving in different institutions of the state such as military, judiciary, health care or any other sector and contribute in the national security and stability in either way. The message of their services and sacrifices for the progress of the country is not hidden from anyone and they will contribute even more in the national stability and security of Pakistan in the future.
