Q. NO 4

1. Introduction:

"The spread of NATO near the borders of Russia especially in Ukraine is considered a shame for the Fed army." Tim Marshall said in his most prominent "A Prisoner of Geography". The same is the case with current going on conflict between NATO supported Ukraine and Russia which started in 2022. The current scenario describes that Russia is advancing towards Kiev. There are numerous reasons for the advancement of the of Russia, such as slow process of funds from NATO to Ukraine, coming US decision, the sense of lack of unity among E.U., failure G.7 sanctions, coming winter, Russian advancement, failure of Swiss peace summit and delay in the delivery of weapons to Ukraine. Thus, Russia is going to dominate the Ukraine in the near future.

2. Evaluation of the scene of Russia-Ukraine war:

Currently, the war has been entered in the new phase. This is a phase which is not going to bring fruits to Ukraine. The followings are the new developments that are going to push the Ukraine in the warm water.

1. weapons delivery to Ukraine:

According to Reuters Report 2023, the Ukraine Air Force and the authorities under the pro-west Zelensky have approached numerous times to NATO. The approachment is based on providing Jet fighter F-16, modern air defence system and long range missiles to hit Russian military sights. The NATO has never approved the request of Ukraine. Thus, it has made Ukraine weak to protect its territory.

2. Swiss Peace Summit failure 2024:

Zelensky tried to achieve the support of international community. According to Guardian The Summit failed due to lack of participation of major powers like China even Russia was invited. This has resulted that Ukraine will never maintain its existence in the region under NATO.

3. U.S Presidential Election and its impact on Ukraine:

According to the US State Department the US is going to form policies for Ukraine and Israel under the new President after the 2024. If the Republicans win the election, it will surely have a full impact on the funds and delivery of weapons to Ukraine. Thus, it shows that Ukraine will soon be dominated after the failure of democrats.
