"Resilience Over Comfort: Dubai's Future"

Too lengthy title

Precis

A cyclical pattern of life; Future demands resilient warriors rather than parasites munching upon the existing achievements; Pursuit to enduring success

In an interview Sheikh Rashid shed light on the cyclical pattern of life that underscores a complex interplay between non-guaranteed prosperity and hard adversities.

He views the view that during tough times human survival & progressive instincts emerges onto the surface, preparing him to counter those times with hard work, perseverance and self-reliance; creating strong men - the "Warriors".

However, as the society transits from adversities to prosperity - enjoying upon those comfort for a little too long can also transform the strong warriors to useless weak "parasites" that eats on the efforts of others entirely, lacking basic survival skills needed to handle the hard
