"Resilience Over Comfort: Dubai's Future"

Balance in every aspect for prosperity of nation.

Precis:

In an interview with Sheikh Rashid, the visionary founder of modern Dubai, he shared his profound insight of rise and fall of societies and his country's future. He used a powerful metaphor as, My grand father his grandfather and father rode camels, he drives a Mercedes, his son a Land Rover, and his great-grandson might ride a camel again rode on a camel, my father rode on a camel, I drive a Mercedes, my son drive Land Rover, my grandson drive Land Rover but by my great-grand son will have to ride a camel again.

Hard time creates strong men. Strong men creates easy time and easy time create hard time. This simple statement captures deep understanding of how history and future generation change. He used term Warrior to build it means those individual who are strong, determined and self made not just physically strong on the other hand he used term parasites those who are not self-made, resilience and are dependent on others achievement, cannot handle the difficult situation in life.

Sufi Sheikh Rashid's wisdom reminds that prosperity isn't permanent, it needs ongoing ^{of roots} strong capable people. By recognizing and accepting cycles of history, societies can better prepare for future, ensuring that any tough times are faced with strength and resilience. Instead
