English (Precis and Composition)

Part - II

Q No. 2

Importance of Character Building

China spent enormous resources to build the Great wall of China. The aim was to protect the nation from outside aggression although China experienced numerous attacks. The wall guards were given bribery and the attackers used to cross easily. China could build the wall but did not build the character of wall guards. Scholars of the history also ascribed that the downfall of the nations could be achieved through destroying family institution, education and eliminating educators from society. This will keep the nations corrupt morally and soon reach to its down fall.

Sarah greeted Mark and asked about the upcoming competitive exams. Mark replied that he knew who had been thinking whether to take or not. Mark asked Sarah if those exams were important. Sarah ascribed the importance of competitive exams which play crucial role in shaping their future. Further, Sarah explained that competitive <sup>exams</sup> test their knowledge, problem-solving skills, time management, and ability to handle pressure. Mark replied that he had never thought about it that way. He asked about the stressful nature of competitive exams and showed his worries about that exam; if he could perform under such pressure. Sarah told that stress was natural and motivated to it as a challenge to overcome. Also, she motivated Mark about the value of competitive exams. Mark agreed
