

Mock - 2

~~Q4~~

• Correct the Sentences

- i) There are few apples in the basket.
- iv) She was cooking dinner when he watches TV.
- iii) At the end of the fall, the hard test comes.
- ii) The movie was very interesting.
Many travelers have gotten lost in this maze-like city.
- vii) In this maze-like city, many travellers have gotten lost.

~~Q5 (B)~~

• Preposition

- i) He has great affection with his children
- iv) He prevented his younger brother on going to cinema.
- vii) You are not polite in your conduct with me.
- viii) Your principal will preside on the annual function.

iii) She did not qualify herself in English.

~~Q5 (A) B~~

• Punctuation

A fast train raced along the border of the biggest cattle ranch in Montana. A passenger gazed at the huge herds and when the train finally passed the other boundary of the ranch. He turned to the man who was sitting beside him and said: "What a huge herd of cattle? I counted 13,750 head. The man was surprised. That's amazing," he answered. "I own that ranch and you are right." "I have exactly 13,750 head of cattle," "How were you able to count them so fast? It was easy, I just counted their legs and divided by four."

~~Q6 (A) B~~

i) A passing fancy

(Something that you like very much for short period)

His performance is just like a passing fancy.

ii) The writing on the wall

(Difficult Situation)

After two defeats, the writing is on the wall for the managers.

iii) To drop in

(to pay an informal visit)

I thought I'd drop in on you while I was passing.

iv) To bring to book

They must be brought to book for it.

v) Elephant in the room

(An obvious problem)

This job is an elephant in the room for me.

~~Q6 (B)~~

• Dialogue

Sarah asked to Mark whether he had heard about the upcoming competitive exams. Mark replied her that Yes, he had been thinking about whether he should take them or not and asked they were really that important. She replied that Absolutely, Competitive exams play a crucial role in shaping our future. They not only test our knowledge but also our problem-solving skills, time management, and ability to handle pressure. He inspired to her and ~~told~~ that he never thought about it that way. Again he asked ~~to~~ her whether they were not too stressful and he was worried about how he would perform under such pressure. She replied him that It was natural to feel stressed, but think of it as a challenge to overcome. ^{moreover,} Competitive exams push them to strive for excellence and brought out the best in them. Plus, the sense of achievement he would felt after clearing them was unmatched. He agreed with her and ~~s~~told that he guess they did offer a opportunity to showcase their abilities and stand out among ~~the~~ir peers. Mark thanked to Sarah and decided that he would gave his best shot.

~~Q 7 B~~

Translate into English

In the subway of New York, A violinist plays his violin for 45 minutes. A few number of people stop and a couple starts to clapping and violinist collected almost 30 dollars. No one know that violinist was Joshua Bell who was one of the famous musician. In this subway, Joshua beat a sound with a (3.5 million)* violin whose price was 3.5 million dollars. Two days before the subway incident, Joshua Bell performed in Boston and earned millions of dollars. ~~In This~~ experience proved that Extraordinary things can not shine in common environment. and mostly it ~~takes~~ ignorance and less importance. In every place, extraordinary people are present which do not get any recognition and reward that are they deserve. So, you should go in a place where you get importance and appreciation.

~~(Q#3)~~

(Q1)

The most important factor determine the role of the courts in society is judges perception but public expectations and legislature and executive ^{are} also important factors that determine the role of courts in society. The judges perception is different from public expectation because it is based on the judicial function and roles.

(Q2)

The judicial self-perceptions of their role is not constant. It's change with the passage of time. The decisions and boundaries are not only depend on judiciary but also involved other institutions that are political and social. So, with the change of in political dynamics, judiciary role is also changed and it is totally mismatch with the public expectations.

(Q3)

According to the text, public criticize the judiciary decisions in some controversial cases because that decisions are not fulfill the demands and sentiments of the people. When judiciary decisions are opposite to public expectations then public criticize the decision and the role of judicial is also doubtful.

These decisions taken in the umbrella of social, political and emotional elements, that's why public criticize such type of decisions.

(Q4)

The academic and professional critics blame the judiciary and said; the role of judiciary is neither active nor creative and their decisions are controversial and ^{contain} negative attributes.

The titles they have sometimes bestowed upon judges are "socially reactionary" or "the high priest of rigid stare decisis and the limited role for the judiciary".

(Q5)

According to my opinion, certain judicial rulings become controversial because the decisions of judges are not based on merit. Most probably, it is based on under pressure of politicians, military and some other powers. Lack of transparency in the judicial decisions is the main reason of controversy. Moreover, the investigation process is also contain some flaws that's why inquiry of the cases are not accurate and it is directly affect the proceeding and decisions of the court which leads to controversial judiciary decisions.

~~(Q2)~~

Title:

"Importance of Education and Character to build a Good Society."

Chinese built the Great Wall of China to prevent their country from enemies but After its construction, they were defeated in 3 times because they built a wall but could not build the character of their guards. That's why, building human character is more important than construct a wall.

Orientalist said: To destroy a nation than destroy their education system, character and degrade their motherhood and role models. Moreover, when a society do not give importance to their teachers and role models, its destroy their education system and also reduce their credibility. When a nation gave more importance to their artists than their teachers and scientists, it leads to decline and reduce chances to build a good society in future.

Total Words : 305

Precis Words : 119
