

(1)

Name : Atbia Altaf

Batch : 63

Institute: NOA (Online Batch 63)

Exam: English (Precis and Composition)

⇒ Q.7. Translate the following into English, keeping in view the idiomatic/figurative expression.

⇒ Translation:

A violinist played the tune for 45 minutes in a subway in New York. A handful of people stopped, a couple clapped, and the violinist collected 30 dollars. No one knew this the violinist was Joshua. He was one of the best musicians in the world. In this subway, Joshua played one of the most complex tunes ever written with a violin worth 3.5 million dollars. Two days before the subway incident, Joshua performed in Boston, and he earned millions of dollars. Experience has proved that extraordinary things do not shine in ordinary environment. And it is often neglected and undervalued. There are brilliantly talented people everywhere. Those who are not getting that recognition and reward, which they deserve. So, where you are appreciated and valued go there.

→ Q.5. A. Punctuate the following Passage:

Punctuate

A fast train raced along the border of the biggest cattle ranch in Montana. A passenger gazed at the huge herds, and when the train finally passed the other boundary of the ranch, he turned to the man who was sitting beside him and said, 'What a huge herd of cattle! I counted 13,750 head.' The man was surprised. 'That's amazing,' he answered. 'I own that ranch, and you are exactly right. I have exactly 13,750 head of cattle. How were you able to count them so fast?' 'It was easy,' replied the passenger. 'I just counted their legs and divided by four.'

⇒ 5.(B). Re-write the following sentences

(Only five) after filling in the blanks with appropriate Prepositions.

(i). He has great affection for his children.

(ii). We will have to answer for our sins at the last day.

(iii) Your Principal will will preside over the annual function.

(iv) You are not polite in your conduct by me.

(v) Would you like to attend to this dispute for him?

→ Q. 4. Correct any Five of the following sentences.

(1). There are fewer apples in the basket.

(2). She was cooking dinner while he watched TV.

(3). Many travelers have gotten lost in this maze-like city.

(4) I had better call my parents to let them know I am running late.

(5). The movie was interesting.

→ Q.2. Make a Precis of the following Passage and suggest a suitable title.

Precis

The Great wall of China was built to keep invaders out, but it failed because the guards were bribed. This shows that building character is more important than building walls. A nation's civilization can be destroyed by attacking its family values, education system, and role models. If mothers, teachers, and scholars are disrespected, who will teach human values to the next generation? A nation that prioritizes entertainment over education has no future.

Title: The Importance of Building character.

⇒ Q.3.

Read the following Passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

→ Q.1. What factors determine the role of the courts in society?

→ Answer: The Judicial Self-perception of their function, Expectations of the executive, Expectations of the legislature and other political and Social institutions.

⇒ Q.2. <sup>How do</sup> ↓ Changing conditions and conceptions influence the role of the courts?

The Judicial self-perception of their role and others' expectations of the courts are swayed by changing conditions and conceptions. The role of the courts is not static, but constantly changing and dynamic. The scope and boundaries of the courts' role are determined in a continuous process involving other political and social institutions.

Q.3. What are some reasons the public might criticize the judiciary, according to the text?

Controversial cases where judgments or comments by judges are out of touch with popular feelings or insensitive to certain segments of the public. Emotional, ideological, social, or political elements in cases that create public controversy. General criticisms of judges, including accusations of timidity, lack of imagination, conventional or social reactionary.

⇒ Q.4. How do academic and Professional critics typically describe the judiciary, and what titles have they sometimes bestowed upon judges?

Academic and Professional critics typically describe the judiciary as timid, unimaginative, orthodox, conventional, or conservative, and have bestowed titles such as "socially reactionary" or the high priest of rigid state decisions and the limited role for the judiciary upon judges.

⇒ Q.5. Why might certain judicial rulings become controversial? Give your opinion.

In my opinion, judicial rulings may become controversial when they contradict popular opinion, are perceived as biased or influenced by personal beliefs, address sensitive or polarizing issues, or are seen as overstepping the judiciary's authority.

→ Q. 6. (B).

Rewrite the following dialogue, written in direct speech, in a Paragraph form.

'Hey Mark, have you heard about the upcoming competitive exams?' Sarah asked. 'Yeah, I have,' Mark replied.

'I have been thinking about whether I should take them or not. Are they really that important?'

'Sarah responded, 'Absolutely! Competitive exams play a crucial role in shaping our future. They not only test our knowledge but also our problem-solving skills, time management, and ability to handle pressure.' Mark said, 'Hmm, I never thought about it that way. But are not they too stressful?'

'I am worried about how I will perform under such pressure.' Sarah encouraged, 'It is natural to feel stressed, but think of it as a challenge to overcome. Competitive exams push us to strive for excellence and bring out the best in us. Plus, the sense of achievement you will feel after clearing them is unmatched. " Mark concluded, " That's true. I guess they do offer a great opportunity to showcase our abilities and stand out among others. Thanks for helping me understanding the importance of competitive exams, Sarah I will give it my best shot!"

(8)

---