

Mock-2

Name : Tahira Bibi

Paper : Eng. Precis & Composition

Batch No : 60

Date : 04-06-24

Question # 2

Precis:

Moral corruption of wall guards, resulted in wastage of human and natural resources in construction of great china wall which was being built to live in peace.

Character building of a nation is great task to be accomplished.

To destroy a culture, only effort needed is to either belittle motherhood teachers or historic figures, according to western thinkers. Disrespect for human values, morality and paying tributes to materialistic deeds and trend setters easily put nation's future in ^{on} ~~questioning~~ ^{questioning} situation.

(2)

Title:

Moral corruption leads to downfall of a nation.

Question #3

Comprehension Passage

Questions

i: Courts play a crucial role in society which depends on people serving in courts as judges ~~best~~ and also on people who think of courts as places
where they will be dealt with in just way. People, who seek justice, play vital role in identifying the functions of places of justice. Thus both

③

the judges as well as public, influence the functions of court in a society.

2: Role of Judiciary in a society is not static, but dynamic and evolutionary. First and foremost factor which adds to the dynamism of Judiciary, is the gap between ~~per~~ notion of Judiciary and connected expectations of people to this institution. Secondly disagreement of judges on various aspects of Judiciary's role ~~add part~~ adds to this changing process. Last but not the least factor is impact of society and political activities on Judiciary. These few factors allow Judiciary to keep on evolving with passage of time and ~~demand~~ ^{need} of the hour.

3: Judiciary has been criticized by public for various reasons. Significant one being controversial cases, which but against public expectations.

(4)

Furthermore various rubrics and statements also provide grounds for public criticism. Judiciary is mostly criticised for being coward, hesitant, bound by old thoughts and being conservative or narrow minded. People criticise it for failing to decide certain cases while ~~not~~ thinking out of box. They follow conventional examples which instigates public criticism.

4: Some academic and professional critics indulge in criticism on Judiciary but in limited approach.
They use coded language to express their thoughts about role of Judiciary. Professionals use legal language within certain limits
by declaring judiciary coward
in taking bold and just decisions.

(5)

Judiciary is tagged as convention bound which is unable to think out of box, by academic critics. It is termed as a static organ which is inactive to revolutionise society. Unlike all critics, professionals use legal language to say that Judiciary has kept practically limited power to establish justice without restraints.

5: Sometimes certain judicial rulings become controversial. This happens when judges are biased towards certain cases or when they are facing pressure on both sides and are confused to conclude the suits. In addition to it, when rulings stand against social values or against constructed norms. Hence partiality on part of judges or cowardice on part of society mostly make certain rulings controversial.

Question # 4

Correction of Sentences

- i) There are few apples in the basket.
- ii) The movie was very interesting.
- iv) She was cooking dinner while he was watching TV.
- v) She speaks as if she is an expert of subject.
- vii) Many travellers got lost in this maze like city.

Question # 5

A: Punctuation

A fast train raced along the border of the biggest cattle ranch in Montana. A passenger gazed at the huge herds and when the train finally passed the other boundary of ranch, he turned to the man, who was sitting beside him and said, what a huge herd of cattle! I counted 13,750 heads. The man was surprised, that's amazing! He answered, I own that ranch and you are exactly right. I have exactly 13,750 head of cattle. How were you able to count them so fast! It was easy, I just counted their legs and divided by four.

7

B: Prepositions

- i) He has great affection for his children.
- iii) She did not qualify herself in English.
- iv) He prevented his younger brother from going to cinema.
- v) You should profit from his speech.
- vii) Your principal will preside over the annual function.

Question #6

A: Dialogue Rewriting

Sarah and Mark had a conversation on the topic of significance of competitive exam. Mark was enquired about appearing in exam by Sarah, which he replied in doubtful manner. He said competitive exams cause stress and further elaborated that he was not hopeful to do well in exam. Sarah explained to him that this exam not only grows our skills in stressed situations but also help us stand out among our peers. Mark thanked Sarah for having elaborated significance and role of competitive exams in an individual's life.

A: Sentences

(i) A writing on the wall:

Peaceful attainment of an independent state for muslim will stand ^{as a} writing on wall for upcoming generations.

(ii) To bring to the book:

Sometimes facts need to be

9

books for self correction and self realisation.

iii) Elephant in the room:

To contain Israel from genocide of innocent Palestinians is none less than accomodating an elephant in the room.

Question #7

Translation

Violin player played a symphony for quarter an hour in New York subway. He could grab attention of only a few people. He was unknown to general public at public place, despite being a famous musician. Same violin earned him heaps of wealth with a similar musical composition but the place was a splendid grandeur of luxury and fame.

This brought to light the fact that ordinary environment makes unordinary things casual ones. Capabilities and competencies are not valued everywhere. Hence one should ~~or~~ showcase his talent where it is admired and appreciated.