

Mock exam - 2

Q # 4

i - There are few apples in the basket.

ii - The movie was very interesting

iv - She cooks dinner while he watches TV.

vii - Many travelers have gotten lost in this maze-like city.

v - She speaks like an expert on the subject.

Q

Q # 5. A

A fast train raced along the border of the biggest cattle ranch in Montana. A passenger gazed at the huge herd and when the train finally passed the other boundary of the ranch, he turned to the man who was sitting beside him and said, "what a huge herd of cattle! I counted 13750 head." The man was surprised, "that's amazing!", he answered, "I own that ranch and you're exactly right, I have exactly 13750 head of cattle. How were you able to count them so fast?" "It was easy, I just counted their legs and divided by four."

Q # 5. B

vi- You are not polite in your conduct with me

iv- He prevented his younger brother from going to cinema.

i - He has great affection for his children.

iii - She didn't qualify herself in English.

viii - we will have to answer for our sins at the last day.

Q # 7.

In the New York's subway, a violinist played violin for 45 minutes. A few people stopped, a couple clapped and violinist earned about $30. No one knew that the violinist was Joshua Bell, one of the top musicians of the world. In that subway, Joushua, Played a tone that was one of the difficult tones written with a violin of worth 3.5 million dollars. Two days prior the subway incident, Joushua Bell performed in Boston and earned millions of dollars. It's proved from the experience that an extraordinary item will not glitter in an ordinary environment rather it will be ignored and devalued. Skilled and talented people are present very where but they don't receive the deserving honour and prestige. That's why always go to the places where you are valued and appreciated.

Q # 6. B

Sarah greeted Mark and asked him about the upcoming competitive exams. Mark replied her that he knew about competitive exams, but he was unknown about its importance and he was not sure about attempting it. Sarah acknowledged Mark about the status of competitive exams that it is a important determinant is shaping our future. It's not only the test of our knowledge, but our problem-solving skills, time management and ability to handle pressure.

Mark was astonished by these facts and showed his ignorance in his regard. He was worried about the stress that these exams have. He was confused that how he will perform under pressure. Sarah made him clear that the stress is natural and think it of a challenge to overcome. Competitive exams compel us to work hard for excellence and bring out the best in us. She further added that the sense of achievement after clearing such exams is unmatched. Mark agreed with Sarah and further argued that they offer a great opportunity to showcase our abilities and stand out among our peers. He thanked Sarah for helping him understand the importance of competitive exams and told Sarah that he will also try.

Q # 6 A.

(v) In the press conference, the journalist dropped in a question about terrorism.

(vi) Shortcuts ~~are~~ are passing fancies for the greedy people.

(vii) In Russia-Ukraine war, Ukraine is resting on America's laurels.

(viii) Daily homeworks are just like elephant in the room for today's kids.

(iv) After years of research, professor Ali brought to book an important discovery about semi-conductors.

Q. 2

Moral Values - The Necessity of Mankind

Chinese built the Great Wall of China to safeguard them from enemy's invasion, but Chinese were invaded 30 times more after 100 years of wall construction. Everytime, the enemies bribed the wall guards and entered through the gates. Building moral values must precedes every construction. There are three ways to destroy a nation: The destroy the family means to degrade motherhood; Destroy the education system means to lessen the teachers and educators worth; belittle and demean their role models means to ruin the reputation of leader so that no one listen to them. After mothers, teachers and scholar loses its face, no one will be left to teach human values and the nation will go toward destruction.

Q. 3

1. The main factor determining the role of the court in society is expectation of the public. Furthermore, judge's perception, the executive and legislature of the court also determine the role of the court in society.

2. Some cases involve societal emotions or ideological and political nature but these controversial case can't influence the role of courts. Judgement of courts are rigid and that involves no feeling.

~~3. Public criticize judiciary for being fragile, weak, orthodox and for overpractising judicial constraints.~~

3. Public might criticize the judiciary for their certain statements and judicial rulings. The judges are criticized for failures and wicked nature.

4.

Academic and professional critics describe judiciary as weak, fragile, old-school, static, conventional and over-practicing judicial constraints.

They bestowed upon judges the title of "socially reactionary" and "the high priest of rigid state decision and limited role for judiciary".

5.

Some judicial rulings become controversial because people's feelings are attached with it such as the cases of blasphemy or desecration of religion. Public is overly sensitive with such cases and follows them thoroughly and sometimes might criticize the judiciary for its statements.