Bringing up a strong nation

Decades ago, after finding a solution to avoid conflict, they construct a splendid wall of China to avoid foreign enemies. But they forgot to make and boast their nation which is far most essential. They said; one can conquer over the well organised development by ruining their family^{system}, education and role models. By demolishing these structures into shards, one can expunge the moral values and ethical conduct from society. No society can pave its way towards enlightenment, if their backbone is miserable and flappable.
