

Q:5 → Punctuation

A fast train, raced along the border of the biggest cattle ranch in Montana. A passenger gazed at the huge herds, and when the train finally passed the other boundary of the ranch, he turned to the man who was sitting beside him and said what a huge herd of cattle. I counted 13,750 head; the man was surprised, that's amazing; I own that ranch and you are exactly right. I have exactly 13,750 head of cattle, how were you able to count them so fast? It was easy, I just counted their legs and divided by four.

Q:- No. 5 (B) BLANKS

i) He has great affection for his children.

ii) She did not qualify herself for English.

iii) He prevented his younger brother from going to cinema.

iv) Your principle will preside at the annual function.

v) You are not polite in your conduct at me.

Q: 6(B) RE-WRITE

~~Sarah asked Mark, he~~

Sarah greeted Mark and asked him if he heard about the upcoming competitive exams? In reply Mark told him yes he has heard of it, but he has been thinking about whether he should take them or not. Are they really that important?

Sarah said absolutely, competitive exams play a crucial role in shaping ~~our~~ future. They not only test our knowledge but also our problem-solving skills, time management and ability to handle pressure.

Mark said, hum, he never thought about it that way. But aren't they too stressful? Mark was worried about how he will perform under such pressure. Sarah said, it's natural to feel stressed, but think of it as a challenge to overcome. Competitive exams push us to strive for excellence and bring out the best in us. Plus, the sense of achievement you will feel after clearing them is unmatched. Mark said, that is true. He guess I do offer a great opportunity to showcase our abilities and stand out among our peers. ~~Mark~~ Mark thanked <sup>says</sup> for helping him understand the importance of ~~completing~~ exams and told ~~me~~ that he will give his best shot.

Q:-NO.7 TRANSLATION

In New York's subway, one violin man played a tune for 45 minutes little bit people stayed, a couple clapped and the violin man collected around. 30 dollars. No body knew that the violin man was Joshua Bell, who was one of the best artists of world. In that subway, Joshua played one of the typical tunes <sup>written</sup> with the violin worth 3.5 million dollars. Two days prior to subway incident, Joshua Bell performed in Boston, and earned million dollars. The experiment proved that in ordinary environment extra ordinary thing does not shine and often got neglected and degraded. Everywhere brilliant and capable people are present where they are not <sup>receiving</sup> ~~getting~~ fame and prizes. That they ~~are~~ are deserving.

civilization lies in nurturing human values through dedicated educators and role models.

