

Question 03

Comprehension Answers

(i)

These are various factors that determine the role of Courts in Society. These factors are public expectation, difference of opinion of people, role of political and social institutions, and to some extent the criticism against judges. All these factors stems from public side not from the side of Courts. These factors directly or indirectly influences the role of Courts. Therefore, these the factors that originate from public side determine the role of Courts.

(ii)

The changing conditions and conceptions influence the role of courts by making it changing changeable and receiving the influence of social and political institutions. Due to this, the role of ^{courts} judiciary is not determined by judicial sector only rather political and social institutions also play an active part in it. For instance, the routine legal matters are converted into a controversial case due to a role of public. This here, the role of a court becomes changing in nature. It does not remain static. On the whole, the changing conditions convert the role of courts into a changeable position due to the influence of social and political institutions.

(iii)

There are various reasons for the criticism of judiciary. These factors include Controversial judgment of Court that does not align with the expectation of people and host of blames against judges. Moreover, vices, failures, and negative attributes of judges are also reasons for the criticism against the judiciary. To sum up, the controversial ruling and negative attributes of a judge cause the criticism against the judiciary.

(V)

The judicial rulings become controversial because these rulings are charged with emotional, ideological, and political elements. When these type of rulings do not occur according to the feelings and expectation of people, the people began to criticise these type of rulings. Ultimately, these rulings become controversial. On the whole, rulings attached with certain factor become controversial.

Question of

Translation

In the subway of New York, a violinist played a tone for 45 forty-five minutes. Some people stopped, one couple clapped, and the violinist collected approximately thirty dollars. No one was aware of the fact that the violinist was Joshua Bell who was regarded ~~as~~ ~~as~~ among as one of the best violinists among the best violinists of the world. In this subway, Joshua Bell played one of the most complex tunes with a violin worth of 3.5 million dollars. Before two days of this performance in the subway, Joshua Bell had performed in Boston and he earned million dollars there. This incident proves that the valuable things lost

their importance among common people and are ignored. The Talented people are everywhere
but they are not getting the attention that they deserve. Therefore you should only be there where you are respected and praised.

Question 02

Precise

Day: _____ Date: _____
Title: Human Character and Future of Nations

~~Title: The character of Human and the~~

~~of a nation~~
The future of
a nation depends entirely on the character of its humans.

Despite spending massive wealth on its defence, an ancient China was attacked due to moral deprivation of her soldiers. Similarly, a nation will have a bleak future whose citizens have no moral values. The deficiency of moral values arises from distorting family and education system and marginalising role models. After destroying these systems, a nation give importance to entertainers an over scientists. This is a clear indication of a dark future for such a nation.

Question 06

(B)

Dialogue into a paragraph

Answer

Sarah greeted Mark and asked about upcoming competitive exams. Mark expressed his confusion regarding taking competitive exams and inquired about their importance. Then Sarah explained the importance of these exams comprehensively. ~~Mark~~^{He} nodded and revealed his problem to perform under pressure. After hearing the issue of Mark, Sarah motivated him and realized him the sense of achievement after clearing ^{the} exams. He accepted the motivation from her. Moreover, he thanked her and decided to perform well in the exams.

Question 05

(B)

Prepositions

iii) She did not qualify herself
for English

viii) we will have to answer to
our sins at the last day.

iv) He prevents his younger brother
from going to cinema.

i) He has great affection for his children

vii) Your principal will preside over
the annual function

(A)

Punctuation

A fast train raced along the biggest border of cattle ranch in Montana.

A passenger gazed at the huge herds. ~~of~~ And when the train

finally passed the other boundary of the ranch, he turned to the man who was sitting beside him and said, "What a huge herd of cattle I counted 13,750 head. The man was surprised.

That's amazing, he answered I owned that ranch and you are exactly right I have exactly 13,750 heads. How were you able to count them so fast? It was easy I just counted their legs and divided by four.

Question 04

Sentence Correction

Answers

i) There are few apples in the basket.

v) I had better called my parents to let them know I was running late

ii) The movie was very interesting

vii) Many a travelers has gotten lost in this maze-like city.

Day: _____

Date: _____

iv) She was cooking dinner while
he was watching TV