

5. Re-write the following sentences, after filling in the blanks with appropriate Prepositions.

1) He is on my vigilance.

2) She died of corona.

3) He jumped over the gate.

4) He is fond of reading books.

Translate the following text from English to Urdu.

Part II

Q2:

Ans: "The Importance of Building Human Character"

Twenty centuries back, Chinese built the Great Wall of China to live in peace, thinking no one can harm them because of its height. However, in the century of its construction, soldiers reached in by bribing the guards. This is lesson for new generation that building human character is more important than building thick walls. An orientalist said "There are three ways to destroy civilization of a nation: destroy family system and education system; underrate their role models - degrade motherhood to destroy family, devalue teachers so will children do to destroy education system. Devalue role models, scholars and scientists so they get no attention. Answer me if teachers, mothers and role models are disvalued, who will teach "Human Value" to children? A nation give importance to entertainers and mock scientists and teachers, has no future at all.

Q. What factors determine the role of the courts in society?

Ans. The role of the courts in society is determined more by judges' perception of their functions, by the expectations of the public, the executive and the legislature of the courts.

Q. How do changing conditions and conceptions influence the role of the courts?

Ans. The judicial self-perceptions of their role and all the expectations of the courts are swayed by changing conditions and conceptions.

Q. What are some reasons the public might distrust the judiciary according to the text?

Ans. Either judges make mistakes and out of them the public will pay the price.

Q. How do academic and professional circles contribute to the judiciary's role according to the text?

Q10: Academic and professional sides describe judiciary as final, unresponsive, inactive, not creative, orthodox, conventional or conservative in its law-making function. They regard judges as "servants of the law" or "the high priests of rigid rules devised as the basis for judiciary".

Q11: Why might certain judicial rulings become controversial? Give your opinion.

Answer: The reason of being controversial is misuse of power, also when policies get involved in court's responsibilities.

Q 4-

- (i) There are some apples in the basket -
- (ii) The movie was very interesting -
- (iii) She was cooking dinner while he was watching TV -
- (iv) She speaks as though she is an expert on the subject -
- (v) Many travelers have gotten lost in this maze-like city -

Q 5-

Ans: A fast train raced along the border of the biggest cattle ranch in Montana - A passenger gazed at the huge herds and when the train finally passed the other boundary of the ranch, he turned to the man, who was sitting beside him and said, "what a huge herd of cattle?" I counted "13,750 head" The man was surprised. "That's amazing" he answered. "I own that ranch and you are exactly right" I have exactly 13,750 heads of cattle. "How were you able to count them so fast?" "It was easy, I just counted their legs and divided by four."

B-v

- (i) He has great affection for his children.
- (ii) She did not qualify herself for English.
- (iii) He prevented his younger brother from going to cinema.
- (iv) Your principal will preside over the annual function.
- (v) We will have to answer for our sins at the last day.

Q6:

Ans A passing fancy: He starts liking the economic subject but it could be a passing fancy.

The writing on the wall: After two supplies, the writing is on the wall for me.

to bring to book: He is a criminal, must be brought to book.

to drop in: We thought to drop in on you while we were passing.

elephant in the room: You may avoid but it is the big elephant in the room.

But Sara smiled and asked him if he knew what people like exams. Most students in position also should be though about his presence in exams.
Sara encouraged him to highlight the importance of mark to him as highlighting the numerous benefits.
Sara encouraged Sarah to feel stressed. Sarah agreed on Sarah's point of view and thanked her for encouraging him while Sara decided to be her best -

Q7- A violinist played the tune for 45 minutes in the New-York subway. Few people stopped.
A couple clapped, and a violinist collected thirty dollar. No one knew that the violinist was "Joshua Bell", who was one of the best musicians in the world. In this subway, Joshua played one of the complex tunes ever written, with violin worth of $3.5 million. Before two days of subway incident, Joshua Bell performed in Boston and he earned million of dollars.
Experience has shown that unusual things do not shin in the normal atmosphere and often they are being ignored and given less importance. There are talented people everywhere whom are not be given the same and gift which they deserves. Therefore only stay there, where you are being appreciated.