As A. Punctuation.

A fast train raced along the border of the biggest cattle ranch in Montana. A passenger gazed at the huge herds, and when the train finally passed the other boundary of the ranch, he turned to the man who was sitting beside him and said, "what a huge herd of cattle! I counted 13,750 head." The man was surprised, "That's amazing," he answered, "I own that ranch, and you are exactly right. I have exactly 13,750 head of cattle. How were you able to count them so fast?" "It was easy," the passenger replied with a smile, "I just counted their legs and divided by four."

07. Translate the following into English.

A violinist played in the New York subway for 45 minutes, collecting about $30 in tips from a handful of people, with only one couple applauding. What nobody knew was that the violinist was Joshua Bell, one of the world's best musicians, playing a violin worth $8.3 million. He performed one of the most complex and beautiful pieces ever written, but the subway crowd barely noticed. Just two days earlier, Joshua Bell had performed in Boston, earning a huge sum of money. This experience proved that exceptional things often go unnoticed and are underappreciated in everyday settings. There are talented people everywhere who deserve recognition and reward but don't get it. So go where your worth is appreciated.

Q2 Title: Building character: The foundation of a nation's future

Precis:

The great wall of china was built to keep out invaders, but it failed because the guards were bribed. This illustrates the importance of building human character over physical structures. A nation's future depends on strong family values, education,
