

QNO#02

Twenty centuries before, the Chinese decided the construction of Great Wall of China for their defense. But unfortunately, they were invaded three times more. They ~~never~~ always invaded through gates instead of wall by bribery with guards. They have invested a lot on walls instead of morality of guards. The result from building human character is more important for their jobs.

The orientalist advised that, the civilization of nation would be destroyed by 3 ways; the destroying education system by less importance to teachers and educators; destroy family system by degrading motherhood and also limit the interaction with the scientist and scholars.

In contrary, the "Human values" will demoralise and their priorities will be singing, dancing and entertaining instead of scholars.

QNO#04

Correction

- 1) ~~The~~ Apples are less in the blanket.
- 2) This was an interesting movie.
- 3) The hard test came at the end of the fall.
- 4) She watches while cooking dinner.
- 5) She is an expert ^{of} on the subject, though she speaks.

Q No # 05 (A)

Punctuation.

A fast train raced along the borders of the biggest cattle ranch in Montana; a passenger gazed at huge herds, and when the train finally passed the other boundary of the ranch. He turned to the man; who was sitting beside him; and said, what a huge herd of cattle! I counted 13,750 head. The man was surprised, that's amazing! He answered; I own that ranch, and you are exactly right. I have exactly 13,750 head of cattle. How were you able to them so fast? I was just counted their legs and divided by four.

Q No # 05 (B)

Prepositions.

- 1) he has a great affection for children. -
 - 2) would you like to attend on this dispute ^{for him}
 - 3) she did not qualify in English.
- ④ He prevented his younger brother going to cinema.
- ⑤ your principal will preside at the annual function.

Qno#06 (A)

iii) The writing on the wall:

→ It is impossible for him the writing on the wall

→ The writing was impossible on the wall.

iv) To bring to book.

You should bring him by himself to book.

viii) The elephant in the room

The elephant is not possible in the room.

v) To drop in

Aslam told him very high to drop in the water correctly.

Qno#06 (B)

Sarah asked the Mark, did you hear about the upcoming competitive exams?

Mark replied her, yes I had heard about that and had been thinking for them, whether to take them or not. And he further said, was that really important.

Sarah responded, Absolutely! The competitive exams played a crucial role in shaping our future as well as problem-solving skills, time management, and ability to handle pressure.

Mark replied, I had never thought about it, but did they not stressfull? and also worried about how I would perform under such pressure.

Sarah advised him, it's is natural to feel stressed. But, you had to think of as challenge to overcome. Competitive games pushed and strived us for excellence and and making out the best in us.

plus, the achievement you feel after doing them is unmatched.

Mom accepted it and replied. I guess they offered a great opportunities to showcase our abilities and stand out among our peers. He further replied, thank you has helped me to understand the importance of competitive events. Sarah I would give it my best shot.

Qno7

A violinist played music for 45 minutes in the New York subway. A chunk of people stopped, a couple clapped and violinist collected about 30 dollars.

No one knew, the violinist was Joshua Bell, who was one of the best in singer in the world. Joshua played a music wrote with a net worth of 35 million dollars. Before the subway stoppage, Joshua Bell also played very well in Boston, he earned millions of dollars. It is proved from the experience, the extraordinary not sparked in ~~general~~ common environment, but it got often ignored and gave less importance to them. Brilliant and ~~ability~~ ability people are present everywhere, but they have not got their importance and awarded accordingly.

For that reason you have to go there where you are getting appreciation.