

Naveed Ali
32359 OB ISB #59.
Paper: Precise & Composition
Date: 4/6/24

①

Q: Make the precis of the following passage and suggest a suitable title.

Title: The importance of human character in nation building.

Precis:

Twenty centuries ago, the Chinese built the Great Wall of China ensuring peace. They believed that its height would prevent invasion. However, within a century they were invaded three times as the forces bribed the guards to enter through gates. This highlights that building human character is very important than all other things. An orientalist said that destroying a nation's civilization involves undermining family structure, education and role models. By destroying motherhood, education and scholars a nation loses its ability to teach human values to the young generation. A society that prioritizes entertainers over scientists and teachers has no future.

Q: Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Questions

Q:1:- what factors determine the role of the courts in society?

Ans:- The role of the courts in society is determined by judges perception and the expectations of the public. its role is also determined by political and social institutions.

Q:2:- How do changing conditions and conception influence the role of the courts?

Ans:- The judicial self-perceptions of their roles and others expectations of the courts are swayed by changing conditions and conceptions. so the role of courts in society are not static but variable. ~~in fact~~ in fact there is division of opinions among the judges based on the concept of judicial function and there are differences in others expectations of the nature of the judicial role.

Q:3:- what are some reasons the public might criticise the judiciary, according to the text?

Ans:- The public might criticise the judiciary by some controversial cases in which the judgement of the courts and comments made by the judges were out of tune with popular feelings or were insensitive to certain segments of the public.

(2)

Q:4:- How do academic and professional critics typically describe the judiciary, and what titles they have sometimes bestowed upon judges.

Ans: judges have often been criticised for a host of blames, vices, failures and negative attributes. usually the academic and professional critics of the courts phrase their criticism in restrained terms. the judiciary they say has been timid, unimaginative, not active, not creative, orthodox, conventional or conservative in law making functions. sometimes they give judges the title of "socially reactionary" or "the high priest of rigid stare decisis and the limited role of the judiciary" both titles confirmed on Wisconsin Simonds.

Q:5: Why might certain judicial rulings become controversial? Give your opinion.

Ans: some of the public criticism have been instigated by controversial cases in cases in which the judgments of the courts and comments made by judges were out of tune with popular feelings or were insensitive to certain segments of the public. These cases are often charged with emotional, ideological, social or political elements which always transform a routine legal matter into a controversial case which lies in the public eye of a public storm and turns an ordinary case into a household word.

Q:4:- Correct any 5 of the following sentences.

(1) There are less apples in the baskets.

There are few apples in the basket.

(2) The movie was too interesting.

The movie was very interesting.

(3) many a travellers have gotten lost in this maize-like city.

many travellers have been lost in this maize-like city.

(4) She was cooking dinner while he watches ~~the~~ while he watches the TV she cooked the dinner.

(5) She speaks as though she has been an expert on the subject.

She speaks like she has been an expert on the subject.

(5)

Q:5:- Punctuate the following passage.

A fast train raced along the border of the biggest cattle ranch in Montana. A passenger, gazed at the huge herds and when the train finally passed the other boundary of the ranch, he turned to the man, who was sitting beside him and said: what a huge herd of cattle, I counted 13,750 head. The man was surprised! That's amazing, he answered. I owned that ranch, and you are exactly right. I have exactly 13,750 head of cattle. How were you able to count them so fast? It was easy, I just counted their legs and divided by four.

Q:6:- Re-write the following sentences (only five) after filling in the blanks with appropriate prepositions.

1. He has great affection on his children.
2. She did not qualify herself in English.
3. He prevented his younger brother from going to cinema.
4. We will have to answer of our sins at the last day.
5. You should profit on his speech.

④

Q6:- use only five of the following in your own sentences to bring their meaning.

Words/idioms uses in sentences.

To bring to book Inraan Khan the ex-prime minister of Pakistan is brought to book in cipher-case.

To drop in on the wedding day of my friend I drop in for congratulations.

The writing on the wall there was writing on the wall for defaulting Pakistan.

A passing fancy Fishing is a passing fancy for me and for my friend.

A puffed pipe He let me have a puff off his pipe.

Q7) Re-write the following dialogue, written in direct speech in paragraph form.

Sarah said to Mark have you heard about the upcoming competitive exam. Mark replied yes, I have been thinking about whether I should take them or not are

7

They really important. Sarah then said yes absolutely competitive exams play a crucial role in shaping our future. They not only test our knowledge but also our problem solving skills, Time management, and ability to handle pressure. Marked said Hmm. I never thought about it in that way. But are not they too stressful I am worried about how I will perform under such Pressure. Sarah then said it is natural to feel stressed, but think of it as a challenge to overcome. Competitive exams push us to strive for excellence and bring out the best in us. Plus, the sense of achievement you will feel after clearing them is unmatched. Marked replied that's true. I guess they do offer a great opportunity to showcase our abilities and stand out among our peers. Thanks for helping me understand the importance of competitive exams. Sarah. I will give it my best shot.

Q:7:- Translate the following into English, keeping in view the idiomatic / figurative expressions.

A voilen player played noilen for 43 min in the subway of New York. too little peoples gathered, A husband wife clapped and violin player collected 30 dollars. No one knows that violin player was Joshua Bell who is among the famous singers of the world. Joshua Bell played a complex song which was wrote with 3.5 million dollars. Two days before subway performed at Boston and made million of dollars. For it is proved with experience that an ordinary thing is not shining in ordinary environment and are skipped. Everywhere talented peoples are present they do not obtain what they deserves. That's why go where people give respect to you.

⑧

* ————— *