

Q No 2

?

Topic title :- Importance of character building of a nation.

20 centuries ago, Chinese constructed the "great wall" owing to the protection against external aggression. They couldn't stop enemy despite investing too much resources, because their enemy used to bribe the guards to enter the gate. This was <sup>due to</sup> the lack of character building in Chinese civilization.

In words of an orientalist "The three things; including the family structure, the role models and the education system are destroyed, it will destroy motherhood, the teachers and scribes and philosophers of that nation", which is the need of today's generation. If all are exterminated ~~there~~ then there will be no human values. ~~there~~. A nation which <sup>prefer</sup> ~~prioritize~~ its non-professional class to professional can not prosper in future.

Total words  $\approx$  320

Attempted  $\approx$  110.

Q NO 3

Q1

?

Ans

The role of courts in society doesn't depend on only the judges the perception of their functions. It also concurrently depends on the expectation of the public, the executive and the legislature of courts. Therefore, there is gap ~~the~~ among these entities over understanding of role of courts. There are differences of <sup>opinion</sup> perception of judges, expectations of people and functions of court as well.

Q2

?

Ans:

The role of court is not static, it is changing and dynamic. The changes in this role can not only determined by judiciary only but political as well social institutions are <sup>also</sup> influencing the conditions and conceptions of the function of court.

Q3:

Ans

Some of public criticisms might be the result of controversial cases, in which judgements of courts and comments made by judges might become public feelings and popular sentiments. However, such cases are one perpetually charged with emotional and ideological elements in the eyes of public. Moreover, judges may be criticized for host of blames, vices, failures and negative attributes.

Q4:

Ans

As per academics and professionals critically denigrate judiciary, as too unimaginative, not active, not creative, orthodox, conventional or conservative in law making function and its over-practiced judicial self restraints. Sometimes they bestow upon the judges and give them the titles like "socially reactions or the high priest of rigid statutes" and "the limited role for judiciary".

Q5

?

Ans:

Agreeing to the author, the judges might become controversial due to their comments which get popularity in public. However, there are other factors like judges might be under influence of other social or political institutions. At that juncture, people anticipate one thing but the jury decides as per the provisions of laws. In all such conditions might become the victim of huge criticism across public.

Punctuation.

A fast train raced along the border of the biggest cattle ranch. In mountain, a passenger gazed at the huge herds, and when the train finally passed the other boundary of the ranch. He returned to the man who was sitting beside him, and said, "What a huge herd of cattle ~~you~~ I counted 13,750 heads!" The man was surprised. "That's amazing!" He answered, "I own that ranch, and you are exact right. I have exactly 13,750 heads of cattle. How were you able to count them so fast?" "I just counted the legs and divided by four."

- 1) He has great affection to his children
- 3) She did not justify herself in English.
- ~~6) He prevented~~
- 6) You are not polite to ~~me~~ in your conduct
- 7) Your principal will preside at the annual function
- 8) We will have to answer for our sins at last day

Q no 4

?

Ans

Sentence Correction.

- 1) There are few apples in the basket.
- 2) The movie was ~~too~~ much interesting.
- 3) She was cooking dinner while he was watching T.V.
- 4) I had <sup>better</sup> called my ~~to~~ parent to let them know how I am running late.
- 5) Many a traveler ~~has~~ has gotten ~~late~~ lost in this maze like city.

Q no 6 B

Ans:

Sarah greeted Mark <sup>and asked</sup> whether he had ~~has~~ heard about the upcoming competitive exam. Mark replied in the ~~off~~ positive, and said that he had been thinking about whether he should take those or not, and further asked <sup>to</sup> confirmed about their importance. Sarah exclaimed, absolutely, and said <sup>that</sup> competitive exams play a crucial in shaping one's future. ~~These~~ <sup>she further</sup> ~~next~~ said <sup>that</sup> they not only test their knowledge but also their problem-solving skills, time management, and ability to hold the pressure. Mark replied that he had never thought about those that way, and inquired ~~if~~ whether whether those were too stressful, Mark further expressed his concerns that he was worried about ~~the~~ <sup>whether</sup> he would perform under such pressure. Sarah ~~agreed and~~ said that it ~~was~~ <sup>is</sup> natural to feel stressed, and urged him to think of it as a challenge to overcome. She advised him ~~not~~ competitive exams pushed them to strive for excellence and brought out best in them. She further advised him that the sense of achievement he would ~~feel~~ <sup>feel</sup> after clearing those was unmatched. Mark agreed and said ~~that~~ <sup>that</sup> he ~~regressed~~ <sup>regressed</sup> they did offer a great opportunity to showcase their abilities and stand out among their peers. Mark thanked her and ~~said~~ <sup>told her</sup> that he understood the importance of exams. Sarah replied that she ~~will~~ would give it her best shot.

Ques 7:

Translation.

A violin ~~runner~~ <sup>player,</sup> played.

A violin player, sang for 45 mins on the the sub-way of New-York. Multiple people stopped, one spouse clapped, and violin player earned 30 dollars. NO one knew, that violin player was Joshua bell, who was one of the best musicians of the world. In that subway, Joshua bell along with his violin sang one of his written onerow voices. Two days before the event of subway, Joshua bell showed his skills in Postam, and earned hundreds of thousand. It is experienced that, such precious ~~assets~~ assets are not given too much importance in society. Such people are present every who cannot get bread and butter of their experiences. Therefore, where you are valued, you ~~are~~ look ~~shin~~ respectable to go there.